Meals 25 Cents, Whiskey 12, Rum 37 When Governor Established Madison County

Granite City in August will celebrate its 75th anniversary. This article is the second in a series on the history of the local community.

The initial article told of the arrival here of the first recorded settler on the site of Granite City, Dr. George Caldwell, and his brother-in-law, John Messinger. They brought their families from Kentucky to Illinois in 1802.

A few years after the Caldwells and the Messingers had established themselves, other settlers began to arrive, most of them southerners come to take advantage of militia rights which entitled them to a hundred acres of public land.

Thomas Kirkpatrick, a South Carolinian, staked out militia claim on the site of Edwardsville and built a cabin there in 1805.

Several years later, he constructed a mill on Cahokia Creek. "Kirkpatrick's place" soon superseded Goshen.

"When the Indians, spurred by British agents, turned hostile in 1812, Fort Russell, named in honor of Col. William Russell of Kentucky, was built several miles north of 'Kirkpatrick's place'."

It was garrisoned for several months by a company of rangers under Captain Ramsey.

Too wary to assault this position, the Indians waged guerrilla warfare, struck down lone settlers and massacred small groups.

Territorial Governor Ninian Edwards visited Fort Russell frequently and sometimes conducted the affairs of state from there.

On Sept. 12, 1812, Governor Edwards issued the following proclamation at Kaskaskia, territorial capital:

"By virtue of the powers vested in the Governor of the Territory, I do hereby lay off a county or district to be called the county of Madison, I do appoint the house of Thomas Kirkpatrick to be the seat of justice."

On Sept. 29, the governor chose his good friend, Dr. Caldwell, to serve as the new county's justice of the peace.

Following close on the heels of a new victory at the polls, the relatively new faction of political leadership in Nameoki township reorganized the town board Monday night and prepared to take over control of most township offices.

In a series of fast-moving developments guided by Louis Whitsell, Nameoki town clerk who was elected township supervisor in the April 6 elections, the board sitting as the Town Board of Appointments, accepted Whitsell's resignation as clerk; appointed Town Auditor Douglas Teetor in Whitsell's place as town clerk and appointed a new member of the town board to fill the vacancy created by Teetor's elevation to the clerk's post.

Appointed as town auditor was Eugene Gargac, 4622 Edwardsville Road, a newcomer in the Nameoki political picture. He is 34, married and has four children. He is employed in the North Plant at Granite City Steel Co.

Circuit Judge William Beatty of Granite City attended the meeting to administer the oath of office to Teetor, immediately following Whitsell's resignation. Teetor, in turn, administered the oath to Gargac.

Appoint Attorney

The newly constituted town board, which also includes Kenneth Gieson and Robert Beedle who were elected town auditors in April 1969, moved into other business necessary to township operation. The board members adopted a resolution appointing William Schooley of Granite City as township attorney and fixed his salary at $250 per month, plus an additional $500 per year for handling affairs on a ticket that included

A resolution fixing the per diem fee of the township highway commissioner at $25 per day of work also was adopted. Another resolution was approved naming the Granite City National Bank as depository for township funds.

Teetor, who was moved to the post of town clerk, was elected town auditor two years ago on a ticket that included Gieson and Beedle as candidates for town auditor and Whitsell as candidate for town clerk. Teetor lives at 231 Bern Ave. and is employed in the industrial engineering and production control division of Granite City Steel Co. He is 34.

Council Meets Tonight On Election Challenge

The vote tally in the April 6 election in Granite City's seventh ward has been challenged officially and the city council will meet in special session tonight to determine the answer to a demand for a recount of votes cast in that ward. The petition for a recount was filed by George Gordon, who was declared in the unofficial vote tally to have been beaten by a margin of three votes by Incumbent Alderman Emerald Daves.

The special meeting was called yesterday by Mayor Donald Parney who said the stated purpose of the meeting will be "consideration of a notice of demand for a vote recount" in the seventh ward. The petition was filed by Gordon with City Clerk Robert Stevens.

Gordon, according to the unofficial vote tally in the April 6 balloting, lost out to Daves by a vote of 584 for Daves to 581 for Gordon. Gordon alleges not only the possibility of error in tabulation of the paper ballots but also charges in his petition that many persons were allowed to vote in the seventh ward who were not entitled to do so.

He asks that the city council designate a committee of five persons including the mayor the city clerk and the three oldest aldermen in line of service to make the recount.

Leon Scroggins, Granite City attorney, told the Press-Record today that in the latest similar instance involving a recount—between R. E. Robertson, now an alderman, and G. H. Sternberg, formerly an alderman—the council named a three-man committee to make a recount. He said he plans to recommend the same procedure in the special meeting tonight.

Challenges Tally

In his notice of demand for a recount, Gordon alleged that the judges of elections "failed to count all ballots cast for pet-

Electors at Chouteau Reject Road Fund Tax

A special proposition to renew for the next five years a special road fund tax which makes up a good portion of the Chouteau township highway program was defeated almost 5 to 1 Tuesday night in the annual Chouteau township meeting.

All of the 77 persons attending the electors' meeting balloted on the proposition with 13 voting in favor, 63 voting "no" and one spoiled ballot.

Their response followed an hour and half of discussion in which the electors questioned Township Highway Commissioner James Estes as to the number of miles of highways to be improved, proposed improvement projects and other road improvement matters.

Estes was re-elected as highway commissioner in the township election. He had no opposition and was the only candidate on the entire township ballot.

The annual town meeting convened at 7 p.m. in the Sun and Fun hall at Mitchell and because of ensuing discussions over road matters did not adjourn until 10:30 p.m.

Charles C. Losch was elected moderator of the meeting, followed by appointment of three judges to conduct the election on the hard road fund proposal by secret ballot. Polling booths were used and they remained open throughout the meeting so that electors could cast their ballots at anytime they felt they had reached a decision on the issue.

As the discussion ended, Estes cast his ballot on the proposal and left the meeting.

The negative vote on the special hard road fund will cut

Nameoki Township Tax Rate Down 4¢; Valuation Drops

A drop of 4 cents per $100 assessed valuation in the 1970 tax rate for Nameoki township was disclosed Monday night in a notice to the Nameoki town board by Madison County Clerk Eulalia Hotz.

Miss Hotz informed the board the 1970 tax rate, upon which taxes will be based for collection this summer, has been extended at 26.9 cents per $100 of assessments, compared to a rate last year at 30.9 cents.

The new rate is based on a 1970 valuation of $38,057,512 which includes $36,035,815 in local property assessments and $2,021,697 in railroad values. Last year's assessments for the 1969 tax year totaled $38,733,034 including $36,715,585 in local assessments and $2,017,449 in rail values.

The new township rate includes 15.54 cents for the town fund on the basis of a tax levy of $50.240 for the 1970 year; 10 cents for general assistance under a levy of $30.000 and 1.36 cents for municipal retirement purposes under a levy of $4.900.

The new town rate is down from 19.56 cents last year under a tax levy of $22.110; the general assistance rate of 10 cents is unchanged from last year's 1.34 cents.

On the basis of these figures, virtually all of the rate reduction lies this year in the town

Fire destroyed a frame garage at the home of John Eagen, 2138 Cleveland Blvd., and scorched two other garages at 8:10 p.m. Wednesday, according to firemen who were on the scene an hour.

The cause was unknown. The loss to the Eagen garage was estimated at $500. Damage of about $100 each was set for garages at the homes of Joseph Baugh, 2140 Cleveland, and Edward Morgan, 2137 Delmar Ave. In a fire at 6:05 p.m. Wednesday, trash burning too close to the building caused $300 damage to the two garages owned by John Gitchoff, 1326 Niedringhaus Ave.

The town levy for all purposes for the 1970 year, taxable this year, was $100.140, compared to $116.150 last year. These figures do not include rates for the township road and bridge fund which are extended separately.

Kochman Predicts SIU-SW to Undergo Drastic Change Soon

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Dr. Andrew J. Kochman, vice chancellor for academic affairs at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, predicted yesterday "great changes in the near future in education, particularly in higher education."

Speaking informally to newsmen, Kochman said, "Those of us who think we've been through a lot the last five years may see that we have not even begun."

He envisioned that within 30 years education will become an open institution, entirely state supported, with the students taking only the courses that they, individually, feel are important to them. He said the end of the four-year "baccalaureate" college approach is possible and all education may be linked directly with on-the-job training and work.

Kochman was the first guest at a series of bi-monthly, informal gatherings with the press and persons of interest on the SIU-SW campus.

Tuition Trend Temporary
He predicted that rapidly increasing tuition, "which is again making education a thing for the elite," should and eventually will be abolished.

"The current trend (of tuition) is a temporary one," he said.

"When Mary Smith gets an education and goes out into society, who benefits? Everyone but Mary Smith," he added.

Four major areas of concern will undergo change in the near future, according to Kochman. He listed these as attitudes toward education, delivery systems, curriculum and management and fiscal matters.

On attitudes, he remarked that the whole assembly line concept of education must change. The idea of a teacher standing in front of a class and lecturing must come to an end, and the teacher must be thought of only as "a more advanced student" who will learn from the undergraduate students as they learn from him.

He predicted that the grading system will be abolished and replaced by an advanced form of evaluation, possibly equivalency tests.

Explains Delivery System
Explaining his term "delivery system," Kochman said that the closed campus with the full-time four year student may have to undergo change and that such facilities as museums, libraries, zoos, and extension or branch schools may become institutions of higher learning.

Whatever a person learns in the process of educating himself must be accepted and if he attends a college or university he should be admitted at the level of learning he has reached, rather than being fed into the "factory" at the beginning of the assembly line, Kochman added.

He recommended a drastic change in curriculum at the university and eventually at the high school level. "The university should offer courses to directly help a person in the performance of his job whether the courses are two days, two months or longer," Kochman said.

He advocated the abolition of courses having little vocational value and said if a person wants to learn how to speak Spanish or French, let him do it in his own time, indicating that such courses should not be required.

Must Revise Program
He said the teacher education program at SIU-SW must be rejuvenated to train teachers not only for the elementary and secondary schools, but for junior colleges, colleges and vocational schools. He suggested the possibility that in the near future teaching at the university level will be much different than teaching at the elementary or secondary level.

He argued that the informal education of children begin before the age of 7.

"The child learns more during those first seven years, probably, than in any other period of his life . . . things that will affect him forever," Kochman said.

Commenting on changes needed in management and fiscal matters, he said that new priorities must be established for

Roy Lee Tidwell, 19, of 906 Jackson St., Venice, and his wife, Hattie Bell Tidwell, 18, were arrested at 7:20 p.m. Wednesday at Market and Selb streets in Venice, police reported.

Mrs. Tidwell was charged with disorderly conduct and released on notice to appear in court April 28. Tidwell was charged with resisting arrest, disorderly conduct, battery and unlawful use of a weapon.

Two Cars Damaged

Two autos were damaged when they collided at 5 p.m. Wednesday at Skene and Cambridge avenues, in Madison. Cars driven by Charles R. Goski, 1200 Fifth St., Madison, and Stanley Jones, 305 Meredocia St. collided at the intersection.

available funds, tailored upon the lines mentioned previously. The idea of an esthetically pleasing campus "to stand as a monument to mankind" is a good idea for education, but must be built within the framework of proper priorities.

He said the factory approach (plain and practical buildings) is the answer either," he added.

Two Great Advancements
Kochman said that the two greatest advancements to education in this area were, in order, the creation of SIU-SW, and the start of the Mississippi River Festival.

He said the festival must and will survive. Kochman said the festival "has done a great deal to dry up the Mississippi River, a boundary which has isolated the culture of one side of the river from the people on the other side of it."

He remarked that he wished it were possible for Illinois to help support the St. Louis planetarium as a facility which helps educate residents in Illinois, in order to further break down the boundary which exists between residents of Illinois and Missouri.

Kochman said that the University has done some "belt tightening" due to fewer available funds and that much more moderation in spending is necessary.

Rather than damaging the progress of education, the evaluation of new priorities to fit the financial crisis will help advance SIU-SW rapidly toward its goals, he added.

The Bile
At this point nothing can be reduced but taxes—the taxpayers have already been reduced.

GC Town Budget Unchanged At Brief Public Hearing

A proposed Granite City township budget of $30,000 for the 1971-72 fiscal year remained unchanged in a public hearing that lasted only five minutes in the council chambers at city hall Monday night.

A short time later the electors—about 30 of them—attended the annual township meeting, presented and ratified a series of resolutions authorizing certain township operations and then adjourned without any action on the budget. That meeting lasted less than half an hour.

Under revised statutes, electors no longer may give final approval to township budgets and tax levies during annual meetings as they have in the past years. The budgets and levies now are approved by the township boards, which also approve the accompanying tax levy bills.

The public hearing at 6 p.m. was convened by City Clerk Robert Stevens who serves as town clerk in Granite City. Township Attorney William M. Schooley presented the budget and called for comment or questions. There was none and the meeting adjourned.

Authorize Fees
The annual town meeting was called to order by Stevens at 7 p.m.

Festival Tent Damaged By High Winds, Snow

The problem-ridden Mississippi River Festival at Southern Illinois University-Southern campus has run into still another snag. The $10,000 tent which housed the orchestra and 1,800 reserved seats has been extensively damaged by high winds and snow during the winter.

SIU-SW officials were informed that the southeast section of the huge pavilion-type tent has collapsed and will require about $5,000 in repairs before it can be ready for this year's festival.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., Apr. 15, 1971 Page 3

A decision is expected soon on whether or not the giant tent will be repaired by the university. Also under consideration is the purchase of a smaller tent to cover the stage area only.

Problems with the tent are just one more headache for officials of the MRF who are attempting to raise funds to finance the festival this year. University funds for the event were cut off because of budgetary restrictions at the local level.

Plans Completed for Benefit Dinner Sunday

Plans have been completed for the first annual benefit dinner, chicken and barbecue pork steak dinner and festival being sponsored Sunday by Tri-City Knights of Columbus Council 1008 in cooperation with the Ainaad Temple and Shriners from Southern Illinois.

Serving will start at 11 a.m. at St. Elizabeth's Parish hall and continue until 7 p.m. or later. Entertainment will begin at 12:30 p.m. on the parish grounds, where a huge tent will be located. Ample parking will be on the parish field and will be directed by Ainaad units.

Tickets at $2 may be obtained from any Knight or Shriner and will be available at the door. Children under 12 will be served for $1. An attendance award of a color television set or a $500 U.S. Savings Bond will be presented. From 3,000 to 5,000 persons are expected to attend and will be served by a crew of 200. Separate refreshment stands will be available. Half of the proceeds will go to the Ainaad Temple, Burns Clinic Transportation Fund and the other half to the Granite City Association for the Retarded and the Parents Committee for Special Education.

Bellcoff Reappointed To Port Board

John N. Bellcoff, Madison City clerk, was reappointed to the Tri-City Regional Port District board at a meeting of the Madison City Council Tuesday evening. His current three-year term on the district board expires June 1.

A native of Madison, Bellcoff lives at 1017 Grand Ave. He is employed at the First National Bank in Madison and formerly served on the Madison School Board for 19 years, including 15 years as board president.

Recommending his reappointment to the Port District authority, Mayor Sasek quoted a letter from Harold R. Fischer, board chairman, stating that Bellcoff's experience and knowledge had been helpful in transacting the business of the board and expressing the hope he would be re-named.

Bellcoff has served on the Port District governing board since 1963 when he replaced the late Austin Lewis of Madison who was named to a judgeship. The Madison city official was re-appointed to the board in 1965 and in 1968. For the past two years Bellcoff has served as board treasurer.

In other business, the aldermen learned a $1,000 grant had been received from the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs to finance a student intern for the city of Madison.

Mayor Sasek said the student selected for the internship is Gary Novich, a junior at McKendree College, Lebanon, and a Madison resident.

The mayor explained the youth will spend time with heads of various city departments gaining knowledge on city management and municipal government affairs agency.

A new program, the student intern grant project was designed to encourage college juniors and seniors to pursue career careers on the local level, the Madison city official said.

$1,922 Red Cross Aid To Disaster in Venice

Directors of the Tri-City chapter, American Red Cross, made plans Tuesday for their annual dinner meeting in May as well as for two conferences in St. Louis.

George M. Eisey, president of the American Red Cross since October, will meet with area Red Cross leaders April 22 in St. Louis, and a proposed Red Cross divisional structure will be discussed there May 6.

Red Cross aid to six families affected by a disastrous fire in the 1000 block of Logan Street, Venice, March 15 has totaled $1,922, it was announced.

Chapter Chairman William F. Winter presided at the board meeting, held at the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank. Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, executive secretary, reported 150 March services to military families.

National Tea Dividend

At a meeting of the board of directors of National Tea Co. Tuesday the regular quarterly dividend of 30 cents per share was declared payable June 1, 1971, to shareholders of record May 14, 1971.

I-70 Lanes Near East St. Louis to Close

Plans for closing the east-bound lanes of a portion of Interstate 70 near East St. Louis for about one year to replace a drainage system were announced this week by Illinois Highway Dept.

When the project is begun, which may be as soon as July, eastbound traffic would be detoured around the Baugh Ave. project on a north fork which would force the merging of three lanes of traffic into two lanes. Westbound traffic will not be affected.

While the drainage system is replaced, two new lanes will be built. The drainage work is necessary because fiber pipes in the present drainage system have collapsed and steel pipes are deteriorating at some points, engineers said. The proposed drainage system will include around-the-clock pumping of about 2,000 gallons of water per minute and 26 new wells will be drilled to collect the water.

Alvin Fields Gives Records to SIU-SW

Alvin Fields, mayor of East St. Louis for the past 24 years, has given the papers of his administration to Southern Illinois University's Lovejoy Library at Southwestern campus.

George Toussaint, assistant social sciences librarian at Lovejoy, said, "the cooperation of Fields and his staff in collecting these records and in making their time available for personal interviews on the history and philosophy of governing East St. Louis over the past two decades has enabled the library to accumulate a significant and useful collection. After inventory, it will be available for use in research projects."

"I feel this collection will be of great value to both SIU and East St. Louis," Toussaint said. "Many of our faculty members are concerned with local urban affairs and the availability of these research resources will provide a reference base for research on the problems and future possibilities of East St. Louis."

Material which must be kept in the office of the Mayor of East St. Louis was duplicated for Lovejoy Library, Toussaint pointed out.

Lack of Plats Delays Final Annexation

Registration of voters of the Norwood Terrace subdivision cannot be transferred into Granite City until annexation proceedings are finalized by the filing of required plats and surveys, according to Madison County Clerk Eustalia Hotz.

Granite City council members approved annexation of the Norwood Terrace area last August, but delay in filing the plats and surveys confronted residents with the question of whether or not they could vote in the April 6 municipal election. Council members, supported by the opinion of City Attorney Leon Scroggins, permitted voting by Norwood Terrace residents by affidavit.

Miss Hotz said that she had repeatedly notified city officials and Scroggins that plats and surveys must be filed to complete the annexation of the area to Granite City and legally place the subdivision residents in a city precinct.

The city council has instructed Scroggins to obtain the necessary surveys to complete the annexation.

Mrs. Mary Skowron Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Mary A. Skowron, 74, of 3135 Colgate Place, died at 6:25 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis, Ill. for a year, she had been hospitalized one day.

A native of Poland, she lived in East St. Louis 50 years, moving to Granite City a year and half ago.

Mrs. Skowron was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and a member of Lodge Krowoj Korony Polski Polish National Alliance.

Her husband, Joseph S. Skowron died June 29, 1948.

Surviving are a son, Joseph A. Skowron, and a daughter, Mrs. Edward (Irene) Makarewicz, both of Granite City; one sister, Mrs. Stella Prada of East St. Louis and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

EASTER IN THE HOSPITAL. Michelle Loftus, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Loftus, 26 Bermuda Lane, accepts gifts from the Easter bunnies as Mrs. Dorothy Kawula, head nurse of the pediatrics ward looks on.

Elks Deliver Easter Gifts in Hospital

Elks Lodge 1063 initiated a new community project this year with a program to provide Easter baskets and gifts to the children in the pediatrics ward of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Twenty-five members of the lodge and Elkettes prepared the holiday gifts and delivered them during the weekend under the direction of Exalted Ruler Dave Whitsell.

Charles Campbell, an Elk member, provided transportation for the 11 volunteers who visited each of the children. Christie Miller, daughter of Claude Miller, a loyal knight in the order, and Joseph Buscemi were dressed in "bunny costumes" and made the presentations as Nelson Armistead served as photographer.

Collision in Venice

The auto of Ruby Medley, 1940 Adams St., northbound on Fourth Street in Venice, turning left, was struck from the rear by the auto of Charles Wells, 625 Jefferson St., Venice at 3:40 p.m. Tuesday, police reported.

Madison to Apply for Law Enforcement Grant

Madison City Council voted Tuesday night for matching grants up to $50,000 from the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission to improve and upgrade the effectiveness of the Madison police department.

The matching funds resolution, passed unanimously by the aldermen, also included a provision for appropriation in local funds not to exceed $10,000.

In urging adoption of the resolution, Mayor Mike Sasyk stated, "We recognize the urgent need to upgrade our police department and to expand the program of prevention of crime and juvenile delinquency in the community."

The mayor said the funds obtained from the state law enforcement group primarily will be used to add two full-time police officers to the department, a juvenile officer and an investigative officer.

Two unmarked police vehicles also will be purchased, Mayor Sasyk noted, commenting that overall expansion of the program "would provide incentive to officers to improve their professional skills through courses over and above the training now required of department personnel."

"I believe the addition of a juvenile and an investigative officer would put us into what you could call a first class police department," he added.

State and federal grant funds for supplementing local law enforcement efforts are available to communities through the state commission under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, Mayor Sasyk explained.

Council members also voted to reimburse expenses of Police Sgt. William Fanning's attendance at the two-day "Governor's Conference on Youth," which is taking place today and tomorrow in Belleville.

A check for $1,175 has been received from the National Advertising Co. for signboard leases on city-owned property, Sasyk said. The amount, termed a "good financial arrangement for the city" by the mayor, represented annual rental fees for five billboards, to be erected in June, and an optional payment on a sixth board to be installed later this year.

A letter was read inviting the mayor and city councilmen to attend the first annual "Founder's Day" banquet, sponsored by the Madison High School Parent-Teachers Association. The event is set for 7:30 p.m. today at the school.

Sealed bids by three local firms to furnish a pickup truck and a refuse vehicle were opened with the bids referred to the appropriate aldermanic committee and superintendent of streets to check specifications requirements prior to awarding contracts.

Well known as a speaker and author in the fields of diabetes, pediatrics and dietetics, Dr. Etzweiler also is clinical associate professor in pediatrics at the University of Minnesota.

Several representatives of St. Elizabeth Hospital will attend the program and tour the display of educational exhibits.

The Rev. Frank Orton of Peace Lutheran Church is president of the Ministerial Association and said persons wishing to help in distributing the books may contact their pastor or priest.

Writer to Spark AAUW Scholarship Tea Riverboat Party Launches Drive For Mississippi River Festival

The annual tea and program of the American Association of University Women will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, at St. Peter United Church of Christ. The tea is sponsored each spring by the AAUW and the proceeds are used for the benefit of the Granite City Scholarship Foundation.

Mrs. John Galanis of St. Louis will be featured on the program with a dramatic presentation of her originally written program entitled "Feminine Fantasy."

Although she frequently reviews current books, the speaker's most popular presentations are her original programs which are enthusiastically received by women's groups. "They are gay, lighthearted and make her audiences laugh," an AAUW spokesman related.

Mrs. Galanis' "dramatic presentation" is divided into four parts: "I Just Happen To Have Some Pictures," by a grandmother of 12; "Women's Liberation"; "Are You Happily Married?"; and "Are You One of Those Brisk Individuals Who Can Throw Things Out?" There will be musical selections, between each segment.

Also on the program will be Miss Debbie Hightower, a student at SIU-SW, majoring in voice; Paul Mabrey, a graduate of SIU, and choir and youth director at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church; and a group of students from the Granite City High School, accompanied by Miss Elsie Mayhew.

Tickets cost $1 each and will be available at the door.

MRS. JOHN P. GALANIS
Guest Speaker

The Mississippi River itself was the site of the first official party for PYRAMID, a plan to raise two-thirds of the funds necessary to assure a 1971 season for the Mississippi River Festival. Eight hostesses held a morning coffee aboard the steamboat Robert E. Lee yesterday to kick off the project. Each hostess invited seven guests, who will each give a party for the fund-raising program. The committee hopes to involve potential party givers and donors from Springfield to Centralia in Illinois, and from St. Louis city and county and adjoining counties in Missouri. Hostesses for the riverboat party were: Mrs. George Arnold, Mrs. J. Homer Kennedy, both of Edwardsville; Mrs. Robert Lewis, Alton; Mrs. Raul Robertson, Granite City; Mrs. Robert L. Hovis Jr., Ferguson; Mrs. Timothy Matz, St. Louis; Mrs. H. Christopher Mugler, St. Louis; and Mrs. William F. Trent, Ladue. The guests received enough PYRAMID kits and remittance envelopes for those who attend the remaining parties, each party guest will donate $1 to the Festival and then give a party, inviting one fewer guest than was present at the party he attended. If the chain remains unbroken, a total of $109,600 will be realized. The Women's Association of the Saint Louis Symphony has announced that it will match the first $30,000 raised with an

HALF GALLON

Don't Drink the Water During Sun Fun Abroad

Wintertime has become vacation time. Increasingly, American families seek the sun in their winter holiday trips to such warm weather places as Mexico, the Caribbean, Central and South America and even Africa and Asia.

If you're planning to follow the sun abroad, make sure that your vacation is a happy and a healthy one. Far too many travelers fail to take common sense health precautions before leaving home and, as a result, wind up with a medical emergency or, at least, suffer discomfort and inconvenience.

What health precautions should you take before you set off for the tropics?

Health recommend that the time to see your family physician is as soon as you see your travel agent.

Consult your doctor at least four weeks in advance, preferably more, to allow time for immunizations to become effective. Your visit should include a thorough physical checkup.

Immunizations Required
The only immunization required to re-enter the United States is a smallpox vaccination.

However, for tropical areas, international regulations may call for immunizations against yellow fever, cholera, tetanus, diphtheria, polio and typhoid-paratyphoid. For children, recommended precautions add vaccinations against measles and whooping cough.

Other protective injections may be required depending on the specific areas you plan to visit. Your doctor, public health service or travel agent will be able to advise you.

Travel to the tropics may pose some special health considerations. Tropical diseases have been eradicated from western countries but still are common in underdeveloped areas, particularly if you travel off the beaten path, away from cosmopolitan cities and into rural areas.

Before heading south, put together a practical medical kit so that you can easily dispatch those minor medical problems that you encounter abroad as well as at home.

Your medical kit should include insect repellent, eyeglasses, sunglasses, supplies of any medicines prescribed by your physician. Tuck spare eyeglasses into your suitcase. Sunglasses are a must. Supplementary salt tablets can be helpful in preventing heat disorders.

To further assure an all-around sunny holiday, experts advise: Pack light, loose-fitting clothes. It's especially important in the tropics to wear comfortable clothes that will give you maximum ventilation. Wear shoes at all times because of the danger of picking up hookworm.

Be careful of the tropic sun. Bring along a sun hat or other protective head gear, and use common sense in acquiring a tan.

Be sure to put on that hat and sunglasses, and apply protective creams.

Be careful of the water. Limit your swimming to the ocean or to swimming pools. Avoid fresh water, such as lakes and streams, because of the possible danger of contracting schistosomiasis.

Avoid Salads, Milk
Be wary of what you eat. Avoid salads, sauces and milk products. Eat raw fruits and vegetables only if they can be washed in bottled or boiled water and then peeled.

Don't drink fresh milk; boil it first. Stay away from cold salads and bread rolls offered locally. Don't indulge in the cold platter presented in the hotel lobby in a tropical area.

Exercise caution in what you drink. Don't drink water right from the tap. Use bottled water both for drinking and brushing your teeth.

Employ moderation in what you do. Jetting through time zones can disturb your internal biological clock. The result may be fatigue, irritability and loss of appetite — sometimes lasting for days.

Take a bath and a nap when you arrive at your destination, and you'll avoid a lot of discomfort. In general, take it easy on sightseeing, eating, drinking and sports.

Happy vacations are healthy vacations. Be sure you enjoy your time and place in the sun.

Madison High School's tennis team travels to Roxana at 4 p.m. today for the first match of the season for the local Trojans.

Madison had been scheduled for three previous matches, but two were weathered out and

Tri-City Speedway Opens Sunday With Full Sprint, Stock Program

At least 27 super-sprint cars and 18 late model stock cars have been entered in Sunday's opening day race at the Tri-City Speedway, including all of the top money winners at the track last year.

The top four sprint drivers in last year's point standings here, Bill Utz, Wib Spalding, Jimmy Moughon and Dick Sutcliffe, have submitted entries and all but Spalding have cars ready for the event.

Spalding, a Granite City entry, has just purchased a new sprinter from Dean Hathman of Columbia, Mo., but it will not be ready for Sunday's race so he said he will be "looking for a ride" Sunday and their are several car owners bringing more than one car.

Others Entered

Others entered include Bobby
Jones of Danville, Chuck Amati of Greenfield, Tenn., Russ and Roy Hibbard of Slaton, Mo., and first timers Ray Detmerman of Edwardsville and Ronnie
Franklin of High Ridge, Ill.
Franklin has just purchased the super sprint used last year by Sammy Sessions, well-known

Indianapolis race driver.

Also slated to race in the super sprint category are Jerry Camfield of Argenta, Ill., Herschel Jenkins of Decatur, Chuck
Lynch of Springfield, David Dwyer of Columbia, Mo. (in the car Wib Spalding wrecked late last year here), Johnny Meyers of Decatur, Ronnie Perkins of Madison in the car formerly driven by his father, Bob Perkins, and Dale Moore of Wichita, Kan., who will be making his first appearance here.

Alabama Mixup
Bill Utz of Sedalia, Mo., was in a mix-up in an Alabama race last weekend but has indicated he has another sprint car ready for Sunday's race here. Also wrecked at that race was Chuck Amati's sprinter but he has indicated he may bring another car or he may be at the track looking for an empty car.

Chauffering late model stock around the one-half mile oval
Sunday will be last year's point winner Bobby Stanton, George Gruenfelder, a favorite from Madison, Bill Laycock of Granite City, C. C. Corbin, Billy
Meyers and Lynn Ryder, all of Alton, Roger Drake of Tuscola and several others. Spalding will also compete in the stock class in a new car.

Weekend Sprints

Many of the drivers will be here as part of a circuit of three super sprint car races in the Midwest this weekend. Activities begin at Topeka, Kan.,
Friday night, move to the Capital Speedway in Jefferson City, Mo., Saturday and then here for Sunday's race. Several top name late entries are expected from drivers on the circuit.

Gates at the Tri-City Speedway will open for the first time this year at noon Sunday and warm-ups will begin at 12:30.
The qualifications, which took so long in previous years has been eliminated and the first heat will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Positions and heats will be determined by the drivers drawing from a hat. It is expected that this will add to the excitement of the individual heats and the entire racing program.

FISHIN' MERCYS!

They'll go anywhere
the fish can go.

Are you the kind of fisherman who likes to take off for out-of-the-way places? The new Mercs—especially the Mercs from 4 to 20 hp—should fit you like a glove.

With Thunderbolt
ignition, you scoot out fast in the misty morning.

Out on open water, a Merc really whips you along. Even our husky little 4 hp.

Inside weedy patches,
you slip quietly through.
The slanted design of the Merc's leading edge
(we call it Glide Angle) slides over underwater obstructions.

Shallow-water slant (on 9.8, 7½ and 4 hp) automatically locks the engine in tilted position.
You sneak into backwaters where the fish are just waiting for excitement to happen.

So what are you waiting for? See your Mercury

Trojan Cindermen Earn 1st Victory in Home Triangular

The Madison High School Trojan cindermen had their first taste of victory here Tuesday as they defeated Bethalto and Assumption, taking first places in seven events. The final score was Madison 58, Bethalto 31 and Assumption 47.

Ed Chandler again led the Trojan charge with first places in the 100-yard dash (10.3 seconds), the 220-yard dash (23.9 seconds) and the long jump (18 feet, 11½ inches), and he anchored the winning 880-yard relay team.

Henry Rhodes was another important contribution to Madison's victory as he took first in the shot put (46.6 feet) and second in the discus (117 feet, 5 inches).

Other firsts included Bill Foster in the 880-yard event (2 minutes, 12½ seconds), Bobby Simms, John Newsome, Charles Johnson and Chandler in the 880-yard relay (1 minute, 30.1 seconds) and Foster, Newsome, Emory Wilson and Robert Pryor in the mile relay (3 minutes, 49.7 seconds).

Finishing second were Wilson in the 440, Mark Zimmerman in the 880, Eugene Patton in the 20-mile and Robin Pritchard in the shot put.

By Press-Record Staff Photographer

AT THE FINISH LINE Madison's Ed Chandler, left, breaks the tape for first place in the 100-yard dash at 10.3 seconds and Trojan Bobby Simms, center, is only one-tenth of a second behind to take third place. MHS won the triangular meet here Tuesday.

By Press-Record Staff Photographer

GOOD FOR FIRST PLACE is this 46 foot, 6½ inch shot put by Henry Rhodes of the Madison Trojans, who won over Bethalto and Assumption here Tuesday. Rhodes also placed second in the discus throw at 117 feet, five inches.

Hurlers Gain on Cougar Hitters

Thirteen-game statistics of the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern baseball team point up a fairly familiar happening in the sport. Early in the season the batters surge ahead of the pitching. Now, the hitters' averages are down, reflecting the upsurge of hurling.

Pacing the Cougar hitters of Coach Roy Lee, whose charges are now 8.5, is catcher Willie Allaria of Edwardsville. He's hitting at a .364 clip and, of all the starters, has struck out less, a total of only three times.

Just behind Allaria, but with more than twice as many times officially at bat, is team captain Dennis Schutzenhofer of Belleville. The sure-fielding second baseman is hitting a .346 average.

Tied with .333 averages are Jerry Pilcher of Collinsville, Rick Keefe of Belleville and Jan Dishinger of Centralia. Pilcher and Dishinger are outfielders and Keefe is the Cougars' third baseman.

Last season's hitting star, Dan Cole of St. Louis' Normandy High, and shotstop John Belk of St. Louis' Fairview High are tied with .283 averages. Cole, an outfielder, could still be suffering from the shoulder injury he sustained in the first game of the 1970 post-season NCAA tournament last spring.

Hitting just .225 is the Cougars' top runs-batted-in leader, John "Champ" Summers, who prepped at Madison High. With three homers (best of the season), Summers has 12 RBI's. Pilcher is next in this important category with nine.

Steve Maline of Marion has the best record of hurlers with 31, closely followed by Ron Middleton, Orling, Ill., and Don Rains, Granite City, with 2-1 marks. Best ERA mark belongs to Florio's Mike Dickey, who is 1-1 for the season but has an amazing 1.72 ERA record.

Golfers Win 1, Lose 2 In Matches This Week

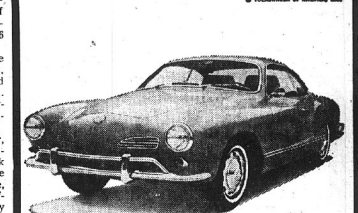

The Granite City High School Wood River. Roulund led with a round of 42, Litz and Eagles followed one stroke behind and Zimmer carded 44. Not counted were rounds of 45 by Willis and Speer, a 48-stroke round for Lattimore and 55 for Worthen.

Returning home yesterday to the par 36 Arlington Heights links Monday with a five over par round, but his 40, Dave Roulund's 43, Jack, Eagles' 44 and Pete Litz's 46 totaled 173, 10 strokes above Belleville Althoff's 163.

Mark Speer also carded a 46, Mike Willis finished nine holes with a 48 and Bruce Lattimore and Milton Worthen bunched with 50s.

Dismal skies forebode a bad day for Wood River Tuesday as the Warriors collected their second victory of the season on the par 36 Belk Park course in Mascoutah for a 4 p.m. round.

GCHS Field to be Site of City's Jubilee Pageant

The Granite City Board of Education granted approval of a request for use of the high school football field to stage the city's Diamond Jubilee Pageant in August during a meeting Monday night.

The stage for the week-long historical pageant will be located behind the goal post in the area of the score board. The audience will be seated on bleachers along both sides of the field.

With the arrangement, the football field itself will not be used. The board previously objected to use of the main field because of possible damage prior to the high school's football season.

Goal posts will be removed but will be replaced after the pageant.

During the meeting the board granted a three-year school bus transportation contract to School Transportation Inc. of Kansas City on its low base bid of $1,467.45 per day. The bid was $100 a day lower than the one submitted by Bi-

He served three tours of duty at Cam Ranh Bay, Vietnam, working as a flight engineer on a P-3A Orion, an anti-submarine unit. His duty station in this country was at Moffett Field Naval Air Station.

He and his brother, Terry, also a Naval Airman, stationed at the Naval Auxiliary Landing Field in Monterey, Calif., drove from Moffett Field, arriving home this week.

Venice Town Budget Gets Okay at Electors Meet

Portions of the 1971-72 Venice Township budget were approved at the annual town meeting Tuesday afternoon in Venice City Hall.

The town fund was approved at $77,050, or $4,000 above the tentative figure. Arthur W. Moore, township supervisor, said the additional $4,000 was due to bond premiums required for the supervisor and tax collector which were omitted from the tentative budget.

The general assistance fund for 1972 was approved at $84,820 and a retirement fund of $11,250 was accepted. The road and bridge fund totaling $24,630 was approved March 30 by the township auditor. The approved budgets total $187,550.

Frank Kimack, highway commissioner, was granted a raise from $3,600 to $4,200 annually. All other fees for township officers were approved at the previous scale.

The town clerk and supervisor's salary continued at $16 per diem, and the compensation for town auditors was approved at $25 per meeting or per day when engaged in town duties. The salary of the town collector was continued at $5,000 annually.

3-Day Rotary Meet to Open Tomorrow Night

A three-day district Rotary conference will begin tomorrow evening at the Sunset Hill Holiday Inn and on the SIU-SW campus. It will end Sunday afternoon.

Lt. Gov. Paul Simon will be the speaker at luncheon on Sunday and John Trutter, vice-president of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., will be the featured speaker for Saturday's luncheon.

Activities will include an informal friendship house for Rotarians and Rotary Clubs, a Rotary Foundation report, and a group study with an exchange team from Australia. Also included in the weekend programs will be an election of members to the nominating committee for District Governor and panel forums on areas of Rotary service.

During the social hours there will be a Governor's banquet Saturday evening in the Meadows Room at SIU-SW campus, and dancing at the Sunset Hills Country Club in Edwardsville.

Sunday worship services for all denominations have been arranged.

Scouts Plan 1st Aid Merit Badge Class

Captain Peter M. Castlerline, M.D., and U. S. Army Medical Corpsmen from the Granite City Army Depot will present a combined Red Cross standard first aid course and a first aid merit badge class Saturday at the depot dispensary from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The first aid clinic is open to all Boy Scouts and Explorers wishing to earn the merit badge, or Red Cross certificate.

After day-long instructions, Boy Scouts and Explorers will be given an examination on subjects to be covered at the camporee on April 24 at Beaver Dam State Park.

Examination also will be given for the Red Cross First Aid Certificate. Those scoring high enough will receive both the merit badge and the Red Cross certificate.

Dr. Castlerline is scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 85 sponsored by the Army depot. Members of the troop and troop committee also will assist.

District Advancement Chairman Robert Hillard said those planning to participate should bring a lunch.

Chorale Preparing for Its 1st Concert Tour of Europe

Members of the SIU-SW Concert Chorale are working their way toward Europe, where they will be making a concert tour this summer.

Participating students include Debbie Hightower and Jerry Doyle, both of Granite City, and Rodney Howlett of Venice.

Benefit concerts, bake sales and other money-making projects are providing the wherewithal for their first trip to Europe, according to Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities at the local campus.

"No tax money is being used for the trip," Jack Gramlich of Highland points out. "We are so enthusiastic about this European concert tour, we are willing to earn the money, or pay our own way."

"The final boost which clinched the trip was financial support from the Student Senate. When we saw that we knew we could get the rest, either individually or as a group."

10 Formal Concerts

Leaving St. Louis on June 24, the SIU-SW choral group will give 10 formal concerts and visit in Luxembourg, France, Switzerland, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Austria and Germany, returning July 20. "We will sing in small towns as well as in famous cities," the choral director says.

"This trip will be an inter-cultural experience," according to Paula Rottt Arter of Edwardsville. "We hope to stay in private homes part of the time so we can hear another language and see a different life style."

"In working my way through school and this will be a once-in-a-lifetime cultural and musical experience for me. I'm looking forward to singing in cathedrals and seeing the countries of the famous composers whose works we are studying," she adds.

Jerry Doyle of Granite City, president of the chorale, says "this trip will help me next year when I go out to teach music history. I can illustrate my lectures with slides I plan to take in Europe."

Link Music, History "Our repertoire is planned to reveal something about each of the places we visit, so we will have some musical and historical ties," comments Marty Kane of Creve Coeur, Mo., who will play cello with the group. "For example," she cites, "in Salzburg we will sing L'adieu Domini from Mozart's Vesperae Solennes de Confessione (K. 390). It was the last work of Mozart for the Archbishop of Salzburg before the composer made his departure for Vienna to struggle as a freelance composer."

The Concert Chorale's European program traces the development of musical composition through the late Middle Ages to the conclusion of the Renaissance.

Group Plans Booth For Campus Earth Day

The Quad-City chapter of Zero Population Growth will have an informational booth at the Southern Illinois University Southwestern Student Union on Earth Day next Thursday.

Quad-City ZPG is participating along with other environmental organizations by passing out literature, bumper stickers and buttons. ZPG members will also be at the booth to answer any questions the public may have about the organization.

Quad-City ZPG, recently organized, is a political, non-profit chapter of a national organization dedicated to the concept of population stabilization and to its realization as soon as possible. Anyone interested in joining ZPG and helping with activities on Earth Day may call Pat Irwin, 877-3344.

Seldom-Seen Exhibit Now Open to Public

"Hidden Treasures," an exhibition of seldom-seen works of art from the City Art Museum of St. Louis collections has opened in the special exhibition galleries and will continue through Sunday, April 25.

Selected prints, drawings, paintings, sculpture, textiles and other works of art comprise a fascinating sampling of parts of the Museum's collections which cannot always be on permanent exhibition. The reasons for this are as varied, but a primary one is lack of space.

Hidden Treasures includes miniature portraits, Degas' Ballet Dancers in the Wings, The Wounded Sea Gull by Breton, and works by Augustin, Ingres, Millet, Bonnard and Duran.

Cougars Split 2 at Kirksville

Taking advantage of misuses, SIU-SW's Cougars defeated Northeast Missouri State 4-1 in overtime in the first game of a baseball doubleheader at Kirksville Wednesday but were humbled in the nightcap by a 16-1 count.

The Cougars collected three runs in the eighth inning as the result of a dropped infield fly and on an outfield error on a line drive.

Kon Middleton went all the way on the mound for SIU-SW in the first game, giving up six hits behind flawless play by his teammates who collected only three safeties. Kirksville was charged with five errors.

Kirkville gained revenge early in the second game, scoring two runs in the first inning, six in the second, seven in the fourth and one in the fifth on 12 hits, aided by three Cougars errors.

SIU-SW was held to five hits and sent four hurlers to the mound. Roger Belshe caught.

The Cougars travel to Lebanon Saturday for a twinnish with McKendree College.

Jeff Lerner Hits .620 for Prather

Although Prather lost to Alton North 9-8 Wednesday, right fielder Jeff Lerner was 3-for-3 at bat.

He smashed a single triple and home run for four runs batted in. He has a .620 batting average so far this season.

Baseball Warriors Make It Four in Row

Granite City High School's baseball Warriors made it four in a row as they smashed Collinsville 11-1 yesterday and trounced East St. Louis 4-1 on Tuesday.

The successful outings gave the Warriors 6-4 overall and 2-2 Southwest Conference records.

In yesterday's game against Collinsville at Wilson Park the Warriors scored their 11 runs on nine hits and committed only one error. Collinsville had three hits and two errors.

Collinsville's only run was scored in the fifth frame.

The Warriors scored three runs in the fourth, two in the fifth and back-breaking six runs in the sixth, and when the 10-run lead came into play in the game ended after six innings.

Mike DeRuntz hit a four bagger for the Warriors with a Warren rack up three runs and stole two bases. Jerry Duncan had 2-for-3 and stole a base.

Going all the way on the mound for the Warriors was Vic Reznack who not only hit a double and drove in two runs but also had eight strikeouts and walked two.

Against East St. Louis Tuesday the Warriors had four runs, nine hits and no errors, compared to one run, seven hits and one error for East Side.

A big fourth inning saw the Warriors rack up three runs when Bill Parks hit a two-bagger and scored when pitcher Ned Tapp singled.

He moved to second on a balk and crossed the plate on a hit by James Forsythe. Jerry Duncan walked and DeRuntz drove home another run with a single.

The Warriors scored again in the sixth inning when Don Harris singled and later scored on a long sacrifice fly by Duncan.

Tapp went all the way on the mound for the Warriors and struck out five, walking two.

"Our defense has been excellent. The last few ball games and I think we have the winning combination in the line up now," Warrior Coach Gene Garber said.

The Warriors have a busy weekend ahead. They travel to Wood River for a game at 4 p.m. today, travel to Cahokia for another game at 4 p.m. Friday and host Springfield Griffin for a doubleheader Saturday beginning at 11 a.m.

Opposition in Madison, Pontoon to Mark Tuesday Elections

Madison Aldermanic Seats, Village Post at Stake

Quad-City area voters will go to the polls again next Tuesday to ballot in city elections in Madison and Venice, a village board election in Pontoon Beach and a Granite City Park District election here.

Balloting in Madison and Pontoon Beach is expected to highlight area election activity due to contests for three of the five aldermanic seats subject to election in Madison and a fight for the village board president's post at Pontoon Beach.

Four candidates for aldermen in Venice, all incumbents, are unopposed in their bid for re-election, one in each of the city's four wards. As a result only a token vote is anticipated in the Venice balloting.

The same is true in the Granite City Park District election where the two incumbent park commissioners whose terms expire this year are candidates for re-election without opposition. Park district voters will ballot in three precinct polling places.

Run on Ticket
In Madison a slate of candidates supported by the city organization includes four incumbent members of the city council and one newcomer who will run with the incumbents. Four of the city organization candidates are opposed, but one of the opposition candidates has announced his withdrawal from the campaign because of illness.

In Ward One at Madison, Paul E. Ashford, running on the organization ticket, is opposed by Harold Ballentine; Ward Two, incumbent Alderman Don Broyles is unopposed; Ward Three, incumbent Stanley Krakowicki is opposed by Anthony Romanic; Ward Four, incumbent Mike Sikora is opposed by Louis Kraus on the ballot, but Kraus is making no campaign because of his announced withdrawal; Ward Five, In-

Nameoki Electors Reject Police Protection Plan

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

A proposal to contract with existing municipal police departments to furnish protection to the unincorporated areas of Nameoki Township was rejected by electors at the annual town meeting Tuesday night at the Nameoki Town Hall.

The plan called for Douglas Tector, the new town clerk, to determine the cost of additional police protection and then award contracts providing they did not exceed a tax rate of 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Residents of the township voiced strong opposition to the measure and noted that the Madison County Sheriff's Department was being paid to give police protection to the unincorporated areas.

Tector explained, "Residents of Granite City pay for two police departments (Granite City Police Department and Madison County Sheriff's Department and Madison County Sheriff's Department) so why not us?"

Survey Proposed

A motion was made from the floor to repeat the proposal and set up a citizens committee with representation from all 11 township precincts to consider the police protection issue, determine the cost to the taxpayers and recommend to the town auditors the feasibility of the plan.

Louis Whitsell, newly elected supervisor and former town clerk, said that the 10-cent tax rate would bring in about $36,000, a member of the audience responded, "That would be just a drop in the bucket compared to what it would cost to contract with these police departments."

Another bill proposed by the electors called for the town clerk's annual salary to be increased from $2,500 to $4,000. Whitsell supported the raise in Tector's salary and said that the clerk's pay has been the same for 10 years and averages about 20 cents per hour of work.

Salary Raise Voted

Opposition was expressed but the motion passed 48 to 18. Half an hour later, in the midst of other business, Tector stopped the meeting to make a statement.

"I took this job at the old salary and I expected no raise, so I prefer to stay at the same rate," he said. He received applause from the audience and the salary was returned to $2,500 per year.

A proposition to continue the special hard road fund for an additional five years passed by secret balloting, carrying 68 to 2 with two spoiled ballots. The fund carries a tax rate of .167 or about $40,000 per year. Whitsell said the bill will finance the chipping and oiling of all roads in the township.

Without its continuation, no new road projects or major road repair projects could be undertaken in the township this year, Whitsell said. He emphasized, "This bill will not increase your taxes because it is already in effect."

The town residents present approved the per diem pay of the township supervisor at $5.50 per working day and of the town auditors at $25 per meeting or day in which they were engaged in township duties. Both are unchanged from the previous year levels.

No Budget Action

One item of business for the approval of the 1971-72 permanent budget, was not brought to the floor.

Tector explained that with the sudden reorganization of the board (due to Whitsell's election to supervisor) the tentative budget probably will undergo many changes before meeting with the satisfaction of the new town officers. A meeting of the town auditors is scheduled April 26 to approve the revised budget.

The tentative budget provides $66,725 for the town fund, $79,680 for general assistance fund and $5,900 for retirement funds. The road and bridge fund is tentatively set at $65,500, the permanent road fund at $35,000 and the road and bridge retirement fund at $25,000. Whitsell also said the township has a cash balance of $55,000, "so the levy should be small this year."

Problems of Aged Is Rotary Meet Topic

Problems of the aged were discussed at Wednesday's meeting of the Madison Rotary Club, by H. Bradley Katz, executive director of the Jewish Center for the Aged in St. Louis.

Katz pointed out that the population is showing marked increases in the 65 and over age group. "This means our society not only will have to face the problem but take positive steps to solve it," he said. The social problem is the biggest one for the elderly, Katz remarked.

"In most cases, the cost of caring for the elderly is too great for the children," he added. Our family structure has changed; we now live in a mobile and split society, with grandparents one place and the children hundreds of miles away.

"The Government is trying to solve this problem but cost factors are troublesome."

"Part of the answer is to provide an opportunity for the elderly to remain in the community longer, and furnish needed care outside of the institutions," Katz said.

Auto, Truck Collide

An auto driven by Elmer T. Madosh, 2536 Center St., and a pickup truck driven by Howard A. Thuis, 3221 Carlson Ave., were involved in a traffic accident at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at 23rd Street and Madison Ave.

Teenagers, where are you? St. Jude Children's Research Hospital has always been operated by the teens. This is one project that the teens can take credit for.

When you hear of a child with leukemia, you can say: "I am helping to find a cure for that child. I am fighting to stamp out vicious and painful diseases in children less fortunate than myself."

JOHN SCHODROSKI
Outstanding Student Leader in Venice

Chamber Youth Committee Picks John Schodroski of Venice High As Outstanding Student Leader

John G. Schodroski, 619 Lincoln Ave., Venice, a senior at Venice High School, has been chosen by the Youth Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities as outstanding student leader from that school.

The award is the third in a series honoring the top student in each of the Granite City, Madison and Venice high schools. In February, Deby Baker was honored from Granite City High and in March the award went to Brenda Ervin of Madison High School.

Following announcement of the winners in the Press-Record, each winner is awarded a plaque at a regular Chamber board of directors meeting.

John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John (Margaret) Schodroski, was elected president of both the junior and senior classes last year and this year, and his decisions have always reflected the good of all the students, without regard to race or nationality, according to his teachers.

Active in Committees

Although there are no clubs at Venice High School, John is active in all available student activities and serves as general chairman of a number of committees, including the Play Committee, the Senior Activities Committee and the Senior Ways and Means Committee.

Last year, he was chairman of the Junior Prom Committee. He has also been honored with membership in the school's chapter of the National Honor Society.

John is also active in church work at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church in Venice, where he is a member. Among his activities there, he serves as president of the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO).

He has been a part of nearly all school activities, whether it be decorating halls or helping make important decisions regarding student policies.

His education has stressed mathematics and mechanical arts but, as John says, "My education at Venice High School has been a wide one."

He has high praise for the faculty of Venice High. "The teachers are very knowledgeable in the courses they teach, and many of them give the students much more than facts and figures."

"They give them a personal understanding which, in many cases, is a controlling factor in their education," he believes.

After graduation, he plans to attend the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, where he will study engineering. His career plans are indefinite but, he says, "I know I would like to go into engineering of some form."

Reflecting over his high school education, John says, "When I look back over the past years in high school, I realize that they have been the most rewarding of my life."

GC Student Wins Violin Audition, Europe Tour

Judy Ann Dublar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dublar, 1512 St. Clair Ave., has been notified by the Universal Academy for Music that her violin audition to the National "Young Americans in Concert" was accepted.

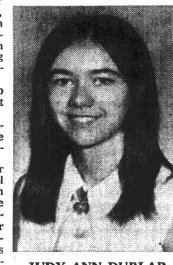

She will accompany the group in a month's tour of the East and of Europe this summer.

The opportunity was the result of her participation in the All-State Music Festival at Peoria early in the year.

A junior, Judy is a member of the Granite City High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Linda Beane and the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Orchestra under the direction of Robert Scheiber. She takes violin lessons from Daniel Roussin at SIU-SW.

The "Young Americans in Concert" consists entirely of high school students in orchestra, band and chorus. Their first concert will be July 2 in Carnegie Hall, New York City. The tour will include concert performances in Washington, D.C.; London, England; Brussels, Belgium; Paris, France; Zurich, Switzerland; Innsbruck, Austria; Venice-Florence, Italy; and Rome, Italy.

The program provides the students selected with the opportunity to perform under the baton of outstanding conductors in an atmosphere of some of the most historic concert halls and shrines of the United States and Europe.

Egyptian Music Camp Enrolls 2 GC Students

Marsha and Michael Ren, 3837 Lake St., have enrolled in the 30th annual Egyptian Music Camp at DuQuoin State Fairgrounds.

They will attend the third session of the camp, June 20-25. Other sessions are scheduled June 6-11 and June 13-18, with the ninth annual Egyptian Cheerleaders Clinic June 27-July 2.

Marsha, 14, plays the tenor saxophone and Michael, 13, plays the cornet. They will participate in a special weekend concert celebrating the music camp's 30th birthday.

Former campers and faculty members are being invited back for the celebrations. Marsha and Michael study music under Miss Vivian Raffaele in Granite City.

'Phoenix' to Play at YMCA Dance Saturday

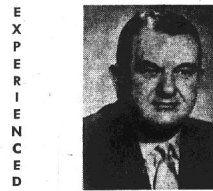

The YMCA Teen Town will feature "Phoenix" at its regular weekly dance Saturday night.

The group is one of the favorites at Teen Town and a large crowd is expected. Regular admission will be charged for the 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. dance.

"Arem Bay" is booked to play on Friday, April 23, with "Arrow Memphis" scheduled to play Saturday, May 1.

Middle East Peace Course Set at ISU

"The Middle East: Search for Peace," a current headline issue, will be the topic of a contemporary problems course in social science this summer at Eastern Illinois University.

The course, Social Science 440, will be presented by an interdepartmental faculty of three instructors and will deal intensively with the historical background and current developments in the Arab-Israeli conflict and the prospects of an eventual settlement. Instructors will be Herbert Lasky of the History Department, Victor Stofius, Sociology, and Dr. John Faust, Political Science.

Guest speakers representing Israel, the United Arab Republic, and the U. S. State Dept. will be invited to lecture during the quarter. The guests are scheduled to appear July 12, 15, 19 and 22.

Several class sessions will include cooperative lectures by the instructors, dealing mainly with the current situation in the Middle East and an assessment of prospects for a gradual reduction of tension or the possibility of increasing violence and the involvement of the nuclear powers.

Diamond Jubilee Essay Contest Planned Here

An essay and research contest on the history and folk legends of Granite City will be conducted for students in connection with the city's Diamond Jubilee celebration in August.

The contest is being sponsored by the Granite City Public Library, School District and Historical Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The essays, suggested by Miss Lucile MacLeod, a member of the library board, should be titled "This Is My Town."

They should contain historical information about Granite City or the surrounding area.

Some suggested areas for consideration include family history, interviews with older people, land ownership as determined by land abstracts and other legal papers owned by the family, ethnic backgrounds, customs, contributions, history of the park, hospital, transportation, housing, port and lock and school district.

The topics also could include the early floods, levees, ferries or the frozen Mississippi.

June 1 Deadline

Entries will be accepted until June 1 at the library, at offices of school principals or at the office of Mrs. Sally Sowell, director of the school's gifted program.

The contest is voluntary and will not be part of a classroom assignment. Essays should contain the name, address and telephone numbers of persons contributing information for authenticity purposes. They will become part of the reference material in the library.

Prizes and certificates of commendation will be awarded during the Granite City Diamond Jubilee celebration to students who have contributed an outstanding essay.

Ammunition Experts Trained by U. S. Army

Ever since the ancient Chinese invented gunpowder, there has been a need for ammunition experts.

Today, an expert in ammunition must be familiar with a variety of shells, missiles and rockets as well as many different types of explosives. He must also know how and where to store them.

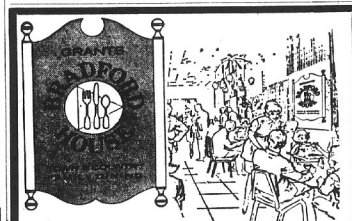

Training for such a job in the U. S. Army is accomplished at the Army's Missile and Munitions Center and School, Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala. There, students attend an 11-week course in ammunition storage.

They learn about storage, shipment, issue, safety and security of ammunition components and other components.

The school also teaches the proper procedures and techniques in identification, packing and marking of ammunition.

For more information about this and the more than 300 fields open to young men and women in today's modern Army, see Sgt. Morris Cook, local Army recruiter.

STA Teacher Speaks At Action Lab Meet

Miss Suzanne Schmitz of the St. Teresa Academy religion department has just participated in an "action lab" at the Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development national convention held in St. Louis.

The action lab, led by Merrill Harmin of Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus, exposed participants to techniques which would personalize learning. The STA religion department has developed a curriculum incorporating many of the communication and value skills which the ASCD participants were learning.

Miss Schmitz was invited to answer questions on how these techniques can be applied in the real school situation. The purpose of these techniques is to involve the student in the classroom learning process and to help teachers listen better to students.

The STA faculty have participated in communication workshops which have improved faculty performance in the classroom.

In another attempt to help other faculties learn these skills, Miss Schmitz, together with Rev. Stanley Roth and Sister Eve Diak ASC, worked as part of an SIU-SW team at Gibault High School, Watertown.

The team, led by Mrs. Naomi Naylor and Mrs. Jeannine Varnhodel of SIU-SW, spent three days at Gibault, introducing the Demonstrations, films, posters, slides and tours of the hospital facilities will be presented by hospital staff members to depict the many activities of small animal practice.

Carol Ezell, receptionist, will explain record keeping and attend audio-visual presentations; Barbara Onesty, doctor's assistant, will demonstrate patient intensive care; Dr. Tim Stout, senior veterinary student intern from the University of Illinois, College of Veterinary Medicine, will demonstrate dental procedures and equipment.

Dr. Don Polly, senior veterinary student intern from the University of Illinois, College of Veterinary Medicine, will demonstrate anesthesia and laboratory facilities, and laboratory and pathology specimens will be displayed.

Talks by Veterinarians

Dr. L. O. Tadlock, staff veterinarian, will present surgical topics and Dr. L. H. Holt, chief of staff, will discuss and demonstrate radiological procedures and equipment.

The two will present educational programs and films at schools and service clubs next week.

The governor designated the special week to recognize the contributions veterinarians make in helping to protect the health of Illinois citizens as well as the state's $2 million livestock industry and thousands of pets.

On Friday, April 23, the University of Illinois will dedicate its new Small Animal Clinic and Hospital. The $7 million complex is one of the largest and most modern veterinary medical facilities in the world.

After dedicating the new building, the College of Veterinary Medicine will hold open house Friday afternoon and all day Saturday of next week.

With live animals, exhibits, demonstrations, movies and slides, students of the college will show visitors the ways veterinarians protect human and animal health and environment through research, regulatory and public health activities, and private practice.

Conservation Agents Take U of I Police Training

Ten members of the new Illinois Department of Conservation Law Enforcement Task Force were among 42 graduates who received diplomas after completing a 240-hour police training course at the University of Illinois.

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie was the principal speaker at afternoon graduation ceremonies in the university's law school auditorium at Champaign-Urbana.

The course, designed for full-time state, county and municipal policemen, examined new methods, equipment and concepts in police work, reviewed law changes, taught crowd control and public relations principles, and offered rigorous physical training.

William Miller, conservation law enforcement chief, said his 10-member special team will be a highly mobile unit for use in supervising crowd control and citizen safety at state parks, and to supplement services furnished by local police, rangers or wardens. He said the force was organized this year after sizable attendance upswings were reported at most state parks, conservation areas, memorials and boat access facilities.

Members of the task force are between 23 and 35 years of age and all are former full-time police officers. They have investigative as well as enforcement and arrest authority, Miller said.

He said the task force next will enter training in narcotics detection and will receive additional instruction in crowd management.

(Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation) It was election week.

In East St. Louis, voters elected James E. Williams, a lawyer, as the city's first black mayor. A newcomer to politics, he outpolled Virgil Calvert, chairman of the Paramount Democratic Club, by a ratio of 5-4.

Contests for the Board of Supervisors were held in Madison and St. Clair counties. In Madison County, the chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Harold Landolt, was returned to the board by voters of Alhambra Township. Aldermanic or commission races were held in Alton, Granite City, East St. Louis and Belleville.

Six weeks of guaranteed summer employment for the members of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra were approved by the executive committee of the board of directors of the St. Louis Symphony Society.

The orchestra is thus available for the Mississippi River Festival if additional funding is found.

A new group, called the Pyramid Committee, is attempting to raise some of the needed funds by beginning a fund-raising drive based upon the "chain-letter principle." If the plans of the committee are fulfilled, over $100,000 will be collected.

The National Park Service will shortly recommend a 30- to 50-acre development on the East St. Louis riverfront which will complement the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial across the Mississippi River in Missouri.

The National Park proposal is basically the same one endorsed by many local area organizations. A joint planning agency for city, state and federal agencies for the remaining riverfront property also will be suggested.

The Hartford Village Board, which has approved bills for a new water treatment plant and well, next approved a preliminary study for a second sewage treatment plant.

Residents of Rosewood Heights favor sewers by a 4-1 ratio, according to a survey conducted by the Wood River Township Chamber of Commerce. The survey also indicated that most residents favor a local sewer treatment plant and have limited desire to be annexed to the city of Wood River.

Plans for a consolidated sewer system and treatment facilities for the Quad-City area of southwestern Madison County should be completed by the fall of this year, it was reported by the engineering firm of Shepard, Morgan & Schwab.

Village Boards of Hartford and Roxana have authorized preliminary studies of second town district into a mall, over 275,000 motor vehicles are registered in the bi-county area; and the spring concert of the Alton Civic Orchestra was given in April 12 in Hatheway Hall.

In general area news, Laclede Steel Co., which has suffered losses since 1967, should show a profit during the first quarter of this year; a committee of the Edwardsville Area Association of Commerce and Industry is studying conversion of Purcell Street in the downtown district into a mall; over 275,000 motor vehicles are registered in the bi-county area; and the spring concert of the Alton Civic Orchestra was given in April 12 in Hatheway Hall.

Ashby Agency Named 1970 Merit Winner

The Ashby Agency, Granite City, has been named a 1970 merit winner by the board of Time Insurance Co., a Milwaukee life and health firm.

W. E. Jordens, vice-president and director of agencies for Time, said that of the more than 3,000 independent insurance agencies associated with Time, only 10% were chosen to receive this award. Selection of award winners was based on service to clients, product knowledge, and 1970 sales activity.

This is the first time that the agency has been named a merit award winner. Organized in 1893 as the La Crosse Mutual Aid Association, Time has representatives in 43 states and the District of Columbia.

Southern Illinois Editors to Hear Lt. Gov. Simon

Applications are being accepted for the second American Institute of Orchestral Conducting, a five-week training program for young conductors which will be held May 24 through June 26 in St. Louis.

Enrollment is limited to nine students, under 31 years of age, who currently reside in the United States. Each will receive a stipend to defray the cost of round-trip travel and living expenses while in St. Louis.

Institute students will conduct the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra in more than 30 hours of rehearsals and two concerts. In addition a number of seminars with principal players, orchestra managers, and the institute's instructors have been planned.

In addition to Maestro Walter Susskind, conductor and music director of the Saint Louis Symphony, the institute will be staffed by Louis Lane, resident conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra, and Leonard Slatkin, 31-year-old assistant conductor of the Saint Louis Symphony.

Applicants are required to audition before an AIOC jury. Applications must be received in advance of auditions. Application forms may be obtained by writing: AIOC, 718 North Grand Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63105, or by phoning (314) 533-2500.

Preliminary auditions will be held in New York City March 2, 3, and 4; in Los Angeles March 10, 11, 12, and 13; and in St. Louis April 3 and 4. Announcement of AIOC award winners will be made April 4.

The AIOC is supported by grants from the federal government's National Endowment for the Arts and from the Martha Baird Rockefeller Fund for Music.

NARCSE Chapter Names Delegates

John Cuvar, president of the National Association of Retired Civil Service Employees No. 1067, presided at a meeting Monday held at Kirkpatrick Homes recreation center.

Mrs. Edward Earney gave the opening prayer and pledge to the flag.

Speaker for the day was Sidney Harris, state vice-president of NARCSE, who discussed benefits provided by the organization and methods in securing working programs and information for the retired employees.

Walter Franklin gave the legislation report reviewing bills that are pending before the senate. He advised members to write their senators and representatives endorsing benefit bills.

Delegates were selected to represent the local chapter at the state convention in Moline, set May 26-28. They are Edward Earney, Earl Lunvitz and Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Johnson.

Twenty-seven members and nine guests attended the meeting.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT GRACELAND BAPTIST

The Rev. Leo Perkins, pastor of Graceland Baptist Church, 2033 Johnson Road, announced a series of evangelistic services will be conducted at the church beginning Sunday and continuing nightly at 7:30 through Sunday, April 25. Principal speaker at the services will be the Rev. Charles Hollis of Prairie, Mo. The public is invited to attend the week-long program, the Rev. Perkins said.

Library Week to Stress Right to Read

"Non teneas aurum totum quod splendet ut aurum!"

If you were to say the above is all Greek to you, you'd be wrong. If you claim it is just a jumble of letters stretched across a page with no meaning, you'd be wrong again.

Yet, to millions of Americans, the last two sentences just read would impress them the same way the first one impressed you; unless, of course, you held in your power the kind of magic it takes to turn marks on paper into meaningful thought patterns. In short, the skill of reading.

Mrs. Mary Gene Knutinke, librarian of the Granite City public library, reports that the National Book Committee estimates there are three to 50 million Americans (past grade 3) who are either illiterate or functionally illiterate.

What's functional illiteracy? Try the following: "But all thing which that shinneth as the gold, Nis nat gold, that I have herd it told!"

This sentence comes a bit closer to being understood by a person who can read English. Yet, it has some strange words which might not quite come through unless they are looked up and translated into other words which are understandable.

Actually, both of these strange sounding sentences, the first in Latin and the second in Chaucerian English, say the same thing: "All is not gold that glitters (or glistens)."

This is a very common saying in the English language, but even as it stands in this paragraph, it would still be decipherable to the millions of people in our nation who have been, because of poverty or circumstance, denied what the Granite City library will focus on during National Library Week this year—The Right to Read.

The "Right to Read" program, which has been announced as the priority goal of the U. S. Office of Education for the 1970s, has as its target the elimination of illiteracy by 1980. As its primary focus, the program is concentrating on teaching children to read—all children.

As a point of fact, any family in Granite City which has a preschool age child has an illiterate person in its midst. Whether this remains the case, of course, depends on the schools and the parents. That three-to-50-million figure indicates that many in past years have not progressed far.

Children, however, are only part of the program's focus. It is also aimed at those millions of illiterate and semi-literate adults already in our nation, and it is to the entire populace that technical skills necessary to read are being made available.

The program is broader in its scope, too, than just helping people learn to read; it is also aimed at making materials to read available. This is where the library enters the picture. Libraries have as their goal making readily available materials on a wide range of subject matter and on all levels of reading skill.

No library, of course, can do a complete job, but all are working together toward this common goal. Interlibrary cooperation programs make literally millions of books available on request through the 18 public library systems in the state. The Granite City public library is a member of the Lewis and Clark Library System.

During National Library Week, April 18-24, Mrs. Knutinke is urging all citizens to exercise their heritage of literacy. Or, on the words of the National Library Week Committee, "You have a Right to Read—Don't Blow It!"

The Easter and Passover seasons have intensified. Quakers are thinking about religion, and attention will continue to focus on religion this Sunday, April 18, when local churches distribute 22,000 free copies of "Good News for Modern Man" to all Quad-City homes.

The book presents the New Testament in Today's English Version. The version was first published by the American Bible Society in 1968.

Since then, distribution in the United States has reached the phenomenal total of 23 million copies.

The American Bible Society in the winter of 1970-71 followed up this successful venture by issuing "The Psalms for Modern Man," the first complete Old Testament book in Today's English Version. It is a volume of 150 sacred songs and hymns.

A volume containing both the third edition of "Good News for Modern Man" and the Psalms will be published during 1971. Annie Valotton of Paris, the noted Swiss artist whose line drawings in "Good News" were enthusiastically received, also is the illustrator of "The Psalms for Modern Man."

The Rev. Dr. Robert G. Bratcher of Staunton, N. Y., is chairman of The Today's English Version Old Testament Committee, a group of scholars who already have translated more than two and a half years of effort to translating the Old Testament into modern-day English. He also handled the "Good News" basic text.

The complete Old Testament is to be published in 1978.

There are four other translators besides Dr. Bratcher. The committee members are working with the most authoritative Hebrew text available—Biblia Hebraica—edited by Rudolph Kittel, in preparing the separate books of the Old Testament.

When the TEV Old Testament Committee completed its translation of the Psalms, its work was carefully reviewed by various members of the Translations Department, including a number of translations consultants overseas. It also was submitted to designated members of the American Bible Society Translations Committee.

A semi-final form of the text was submitted to all members of the Translations Committee for their review and suggestions, to be incorporated in the final text. Then the text was presented to the Society's board of managers for final approval.

What guidelines are used in such a task as translating the beloved Psalms?

The goal was a common language version "in that form of literary English which is common to all people, regardless of their age, education, whether of a high or low level of education and whether native or non-native speakers."

The guide also emphasized that the translation should be "concise and accurately communicating to reader or hearer the content of the message," with greater stress on "clarity of meaning than on literary form."

It also was decided that "in at least some of the poetical passages, some attempt should be made to render the material in some kind of free verse to such extent as may be possible."

There will give some examples of the revised psalms after commenting that the American Bible Society—a non-profit organization founded in 1816—is performing a fine public service, as are the churches of the Quad-Cities.

Your praise reaches up to the heavens; it is sung by children and babies, you have built a fortress against your foes to stop your enemies and adversaries.

When I look at the sky, when you have made, at the moon and the stars, which you set in their places, what is man, that you think of him; mere man, that you care for him?

Yet you made him inferior only to yourself; you crowned him with glory and honor. You made him ruler over all you have made;

you placed him over all things: sheep and cattle, and wild animals too; the birds and the fish, and all the creatures in the seas.

Lord, our Lord, your greatness is seen in all the world!

Psalms Number 24
The Great King
The world and all that is in it belong to the Lord;

the earth and all who live on it are his. He built it on the deep waters beneath the earth and laid its foundations in the ocean depths.

Who has the right to go up the Lord's hill? Who is allowed to enter his holy temple?

He who is pure in act and in thought, who does not worship idols, or make false promises.

The Lord will bless him; God his Savior will declare him innocent. Such are the people who come to God; who come into the presence of the God of Jacob. Flaring wide the gates, open the ancient doors, and the great king will come in!

Who is this great king? He is the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord victorious in battle! Flaring wide the gates, open the ancient doors, and the great king will come in!

Who is this great king? The Lord of armies, he is the great king!

Psalms Number 100
A Hymn of Praise
Sing for joy to the Lord, all the world! The Lord gladly, worship the Lord gladly, come before him with joyful songs! Never forget that the Lord is God. He made us, and we belong to him;

we are his people, we are his flock. Enter his temple with thanksgiving, enter his sanctuary with praise!

Give thanks to him and praise him! The Lord is good; his love lasts forever, and his faithfulness for all time.

Psalms Number 117
In Praise of the Lord
Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise him, all peoples!

His constant love for us is strong, and his faithfulness is eternal. Praise the Lord!

Psalms Number 122
In Praise of Jerusalem
I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the Lord's house!"

And now we are here, standing before the gates of Jerusalem! Jerusalem is a city restored in beautiful order and harmony.

This is where the tribes come, the tribes of Israel, to give thanks to the Lord, who has commanded them. This is where the law courts are, where the king judges his people.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! May they who love you prosper! May there be peace inside your walls, and peace in your palaces."

Psalms Number 8
God's Glory and Man's Dignity
Lord, our Lord, your greatness is seen in all the world!

Former Trustee Challenging Pontoon Beach President in Village Election Next Week

The question confronting voters in the village of Pontoon Beach next Tuesday is whether to retain their current mayor, Thomas Staicoff, or to name as his successor Chester E. Dean, a former trustee of the village. There is no opposition for either officer's position—the clerk and three board members.

Mr. Staicoff can cite his experience as village president since the inception of the municipality eight years ago. He has devoted much time to the tasks connected with the elected official of Pontoon Beach, and has been active in the Nameoki Youth and Adult Community Services.

Mr. Dean also was a charter village official and has kept in touch with current issues. He has been active in Masonic and Shrine programs as well as Bricklayers Local 65.

Both are aware of sewer and drainage needs and propose to solve them. Both are hopeful of encouraging additional growth. Mr. Staicoff urges increased attention to clean-up efforts to beautify the village, while Mr. Dean calls for establishment of a civic center to aid in providing safe and wholesome activities for children.

Both are attractive candidates and we can visualize Pontoon Beach progressing under the leadership of either individual.

We lean toward Mr. Dean on the basis of his statement that "as I am an independent candidate, I will be dedicated to the people of the village." Mayor Staicoff has similar dedication but, as treasurer of the East St. Louis District for six years, has had much closer links to St. Clair County and Madison County political organizations.

In the Fourth Ward, Louis Kraus is on the ballot but has announced the halt of his campaign to health concerns. In addition, he is commending Mr. Broyles in Ward Two and

WALKER FAMILY WILL REMAIN ACTIVE IN CITY
To the Editor:
I am proud of my son Jerry's achievements in his first political venture. I consider it quite magnificent that he has been elected alderman in the Third Ward aldermanic election. We are grateful to our volunteer workers and supporters.

There was an article in the April 5 Forum inquiring about his experience. What that will no doubt be attained in the future, Alderman Poulos. In regard to his qualifications, I think his challenge proved that Alderman Boyd.

As to his union affiliation, it is not required on his present position with a brokerage firm. However, I was a member of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union for 20 years until my retirement.

And our late beloved husband and father was a member of the Steelworkers local. Gene Steel Castings Company, during his life, retiring after 35 years of service.

We have been local residents all of our lives and consistent voters. I can assure you that my family will continue to serve our community. Our heartfelt thanks to all our loyal friends and supporters.

SNOWBALLS THROWN AT CARLS DANGEROUS PRANK
To the Editor:
How many people in this country or community wake up in the morning and say, "Oh Lord, thank you for watching over me and letting me live to see this day?"

How many are thankful for living in the U. S. and in a community whose people try to do good for others, as they have received good from Above and from their people?

How many had such thoughts during the April 6 election? As I worked in the election, I Alderman Mike Sikora in Ward Four, we have the following thoughts about the other Madison City Council candidates.

FIRST WARD—Both of the contenders for a vacant council seat have been active in many civic organizations and had fine records as volunteers during the past year. Mr. H. Harold Ballentine has been an alert citizen with helpful views on Madison issues, and could be a valuable alderman as a dissenter to the unanimity which occasionally has stifled full exploration of proposals awaiting official action.

We lean toward Paul Ashford, a member of the Board of Police Commissioners, as having the best chance of effective council service. However, there is no doubt that Mr. Ballentine's presence on the council would serve to keep both officials and employees on their toes.

THIRD WARD—Stanley Krawkowski, the incumbent alderman, is a hard-working public servant who we think deserves the opportunity to continue as a council member.

FIFTH WARD—We favor John Haynes, a veteran alderman who has devoted much time to church and scout activities, the Madison County mental health program, United Fund and Urban League. He is vice-chairman of the Venice Township (Madison and Venice) Democratic organization.

Four Aldermen Unopposed in Venice Voting, Two Unopposed for Granite City Park Board

The city of Venice is expected to have a quiet biennial municipal election April 20, since four candidates for four-year aldermanic terms have no opposition.

Lloyd Patterson of Ward One, George Mangiaracino of Ward Two, Louis Ratliff of Ward Three and Oscar King of Ward Four have served with distinction on the City Council. We have no hesitation in recommending their re-election.

Also candidates are two unopposed members of the Granite City park district board, Henry Gabriel and Barry Loman. Commissioner Gabriel is the current president of the park board; Mr. Loman, a past park president, is vice-president at the present time.

Region Hopeful That Illinois Arts Council Will Allocate $50,000 for River Festival

High hopes are held throughout southwestern Illinois for a successful discussion tomorrow and favorable action next week by the Illinois Arts Council. The Council has been asked to provide $50,000 for the 1971 Mississippi River Festival, which is to be presented at SILSW during July and August if adequate financing can be arranged.

The Arts Council chairman has said approval will hinge on an agreement between the Council and the MRF on the way the money would be used. George M. Irwin reports he would like to see Illinois 60% share of the concert audiences increased through partial ticket or bus transportation subsidies. He also would like to aid in hiring musical groups, with emphasis on Illinois groups.

Due to the limited time left to complete arrangements for this year's Festival season, if there is to be one, we urge a spirit of compromise in tomorrow's deliberations. Fuller adherence to the Council fund guidelines then would be possible. In 1972, when there would be greater time for planning and preparations.

UNDERSTANDING TASTE AT MARSHALL SCHOOL
To the Editor:
I would like to publicly express gratitude to Miss Dorothy Hopkins, Mrs. Chilton and all the teachers who gave me the opportunity to serve the needs of Nameoki Township.

They have completely restored my faith in the Granite City school system.

If all teachers were as interested in their students and as understanding as the teachers and parents as those at Marshall are, we parents would be assured that our school district is truly the best.

GRANITE CITY MOTHER
VOICE IN GOVERNMENT FOR ALL IN NAMEOKI
To the Editor:
Now that the campaigning is over in Nameoki Township, Louis Whitsett and Albert Bell will begin prompt attention to all matters of concern in all the precincts of our township.

We are grateful for the endorsement of the Granite City Press-Record and for the excellent cooperation of the development.

At the same time, we are thankful for those who battled the snowstorm on election day to support us; and thanks to our Town Board and other supporters who gave me the opportunity to serve the needs of Nameoki Township.

Lease Provisions Form Set of Rules for Landlord and Tenant

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

Apartment and house hunting would be best for your particular situation. While talking with your attorney, ask him to explain how you or the landlord might be able to break the lease. Also, ask him what happens if the landlord were to sell the building to someone else.

... ..
If you and the landlord previously agreed orally on any decorating or repairs, see to it that these are included. After meeting with your lawyer, contact the owner and ask him if your changes can be incorporated into the lease.

... ..
Only sign the lease when you completely understand its provisions. This is a legal contract and cannot be broken without a penalty, unless the specific situation is provided for in the lease or the law.

... ..
The law says that even if no lease exists, a landlord must give his tenants notice before requiring them to vacate the premises. The tenant is legally entitled to the building in writing. Conversely, the tenant without a lease who wants to move, must give the same type of notice to the landlord.

... ..
Your landlord most likely will require a security deposit. As a rule, it is one or more month's rent. This will be held as security against any damages which might be required when you vacate the building. Under the present law, you will receive no interest on this money.

... ..
He might suggest a clause allowing you to sublease the residence should you have to move because of an unforeseen situation. Your lawyer might suggest a longer or shorter term lease.

Joint Effort to Reduce On-Job Accidents, Hazards to Health

Many Who Later Take Their Own Lives Could Be Helped

(Ninth of a series on the Quad-City mental health clinic.)

The Madison County Mental Health Clinic Quad-Cities Center has been aware of the need in the southern half of Madison County for a 24-hour crisis intervention—suicide prevention program.

Because of this recognized need, the clinic has been, in part, responsible for the development of the Madison-St. Clair Counties Suicide Prevention Service.

The clinic is represented on the board of directors by its acting director, serving as vice-president. Suicide Prevention offers a 24-hour-a-day crisis intervention—suicide prevention telephone service.

This program seems to have demonstrated its usefulness. However, studies have indicated these programs reach only a small proportion of suicides and suicide attempts.

It is clear that the goal of effective community crisis intervention and suicide prevention will require the development of additional programs. It is the clinic's hope to hire a full-time professional (social work or psychology) to initiate a program of increased service to the community in the following ways:

1. To provide services to persons known to have made suicide attempts to ensure that they accept referrals to appropriate psychological and psychiatric treatment.

2. To remain in contact with these clients for a period of time to encourage them to remain in treatment as long as appropriate.

3. To develop a sufficiently strong relationship with attorneys and their families that they will seek help immediately in a new crisis.

4. To develop a network identifying suicide attempts involving physicians, hospitals, police, clergy, social agencies and public aid agencies to facilitate appropriate care.

5. To develop consultative relations with a non-psychiatric physician and with non-psychiatric agencies to facilitate the proper evaluation and treatment of attempters.

6. To provide repeated contact and follow-up services for callers to the suicide prevention service. This would include suicide threateners, callers with other psychiatric problems and other crises.

7. To initiate efforts to develop 24-hour-a-day crisis intervention community service. This worker would be on call as needed, particularly for suicidal crisis. His experience would be helpful in planning future involvement in an around-the-clock service.

8. To provide "psychological autopsies" and crisis intervention service to the survivors of suicides. The rationale for this program is based on much of the research on suicide and similar programs of prevention currently operating.

It is well established that suicide attempters have a significant suicide risk in the following years. Follow-up studies of attempters show an average of about 2% die by suicide in the following year, and an additional 1% each succeeding year.

The highest percentage dying by suicide was 20% in a 20-year follow-up. Others have shown that the suicide risk in attempters is about 100 times as high as the average person in the year following their attempt.

Thus, it is clear that suicide attempters are a significant high-risk group. Secondly, they contribute significantly to the suicide rate. Studies of unselected suicides show that from 22% to 33% are known to have made a previous unsuccessful attempt.

Our estimate based on these and similar studies leads us to conclude that following up all suicide attempters would put us in contact with 10% of all suicides within one year prior to their death.

It is also clear that suicide attempters do not receive good service at the present time.

Those seen by physicians or emergency rooms do receive adequate medical care. Several studies reported recently show that physicians and emergency room personnel tend to like suicide attempters less than other psychiatric patients and also tend to be less likely to see them as candidates for psychological therapies.

Not all attempters receive referrals for psychiatric treatment. According to one study, only one in seven given a referral actually entered treatment.

This obviously reflects a lack of urgency on the part of the professional suggesting it. Even lay people achieve a 50% success rate when motivated to do so.

Research shows that repeated contact is especially important in referral to psychiatric service and greatly increases referral success rates.

As mentioned before, the average suicide rate in attempters is about 2% the first year. Ringel, in Vienna, Austria, has described a system which closely coordinates a poison control center, emergency room, hospital and psychiatric clinic.

In a very large series, over 2,000, they had only one suicide or about 2% of that seen where such care is not taken. Similar programs are being used in Atlanta and San Francisco. Motto has reported that telephone contacts on a monthly basis have been helpful in handling attempters.

Prior research by him has shown that attempters who form a stable treatment relationship with one agency have a lower suicide rate than those who go from agency to agency or none at all.

Hungarian Pianist to Give SIU-SW Concert

Hungarian pianist Miklos Ivanich will give a concert at Southern Illinois University—Southern Campus Sunday at 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building theater. The public is invited, admission free.

At his SIU appearance, sponsored by music faculty of the Fine Arts Division, Ivanich will play Mozart's Fantasia in C Minor, K. 475, Sonata in F Minor, Opus 5, by Brahms, Dances of Marusszek and Seven Pieces for Piano, Opus 11, by Kodaly, and Dante Sonata (Sonata quasi fantasia) by Liszt.

Ivanich made his first public appearance in 1946 at the age of 14 with the Kaposvar Symphony Orchestra. The following two years he appeared in Hungary with a number of orchestras.

He studied at the Franz Liszt Academy of Music in Budapest in 1950 and in 1961 gave several public concerts at the Academy. During this period he was deported for political reasons but later was reinstated by the intervention of Zoltan Kodaly.

A. O. Smith Awarded 1970 National Safety Honor

A. O. Smith Corp. has been named the winner of the National Safety Council Award of Honor for 1970, U. S. T. Kuehlich, president, has announced.

This is the fifth time in the last six years that A. O. Smith has received the award. The company operates a plant in Granite City which manufactures auto frames.

The National Safety Council presents the Award of Honor, its highest commendation, to corporations which have outstanding safety records.

In 1970, the National Safety Council noted, A. O. Smith employees throughout the U. S. worked a total of 28,575,000 hours with only 30 disabling injuries. A disabling injury is defined as one which caused an employee to lose time from his job. A. O. Smith employs about 16,000 persons.

This excellent safety record was achieved in spite of the fact that the company has a heavy concentration of its products in the heavy metal fabrication field requiring hundreds of thousands of tons of steel blanks formed by massive presses and then assembled by welding.

The National Safety Council uses a mathematical formula to determine accident frequency and severity rates to make comparisons between companies in the same industry.

In 1970, A. O. Smith's frequency rate was 1.05 compared to an average for other companies of 11.60. Its severity rate

Eagle Scouts Honored At Special Dinner Monday

Madison County's Buy $430,147 Savings Bonds

Madison county residents purchased a total of $430,147 in series E and H United States savings bonds in February, according to Henry D. Karandjeff, of the Granite City, county chairman of the savings bonds committee. Illinois sales were $27,838,887, according to Clarence S. Sotkowski, market director of the Treasury savings bonds division. This figure is down 1.28% from February, 1970. Illinois sales represent 6.5 percent of the national total of $431,000,000 and purchases in the first two months equal 18.7 percent of the 1971 goal of $313,600,000. Sales for February 1970 in Cook county and the State of Illinois included Freedom Shares which were discontinued June 30, 1970. Sales of series E and H bonds alone, therefore, are practically the same as last February.

Area Youth Workers Participating in Governor's Conference

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
"Tuning In the Turned-On Generation" is the theme of the 40th annual Governor's Conference on Youth. The event is taking place today and tomorrow at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville.

Many Quad-Cityans concerned with juvenile problems and youth education in general are attending the two-day conference in which three local residents are serving as resource panelists at workshop sessions. Highlighting the conference will be an address by Illinois Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, and presentation of the "Governor's Citations" for outstanding service to youth, during a 12:30 p.m. luncheon Friday at Augustine's.

For the first time in its four-decade history, the Governor's Conference is being offered in eight segments—each portion to be held in a major population center of the state.

Prominent educators, businessmen and public officials are heading the various conferences with members of the planning committees representing major youth-serving organizations in each region.

With interest in this important event growing each year, and with concern about juvenile problems continuing to mount, it became imperative that the conference format be changed, making it possible for all persons in the state to share in these deliberations about young people and about the development of new resources for youth, according to Gov. Ogilvie.

Needs of Youth
As at the 39 state conferences in the past, there will be major presentations on topics of general interest—and in addition, there will be discussions of youth needs on the local level, with practical solutions to youth problems. Scott Randolph, principal of Washington School, East St. Louis, and chairman of the Belleville area conference, announced.

Registration of participants started at 10 a.m. today, with the opening session to get under way at 1 p.m.

Keynote speaker will be

GOV. RICHARD OGILVIE To Present Awards

Peter B. Bensing, director of the Illinois Department of Corrections, is the principal speaker at the conference. He will be the first speaker at the 12:30 p.m. luncheon Friday at Augustine's.

In addition to supervising treatment programs for 15,000 offenders—approximately 5,000 of them under jurisdiction of the Juvenile Division and 10,000 in the Adult Division, Bensing oversees a program which includes the Parole and Pardon Board, the newly-created Bureau of Detention Facilities and Jail Standards, and numerous other services involving prevention, treatment and research into the causes of crime and delinquency.

He is a member of the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission on Children, the Illinois Narcotics Advisory Council and is on the board of directors of the American Correctional Association.

Bensing also serves on the

MITCHELL WARE IBI Director

A graduate of Yale University, the penal system director has been active in youth work on a volunteer basis since his college days. He received the 1969 leadership award of the Jewish Federation of Greater Chicago for his service to the community and was nominated by the Springfield Jaycees for the 1970 Ten Outstanding Young Men of America competition.

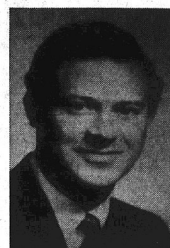

Ware, tonight's banquet speaker, heads the primary investigative arm of the state concentrating on major crimes involving narcotics and organized crime.

Criminal Law Expert
An attorney, professor of criminal law and a former television news reporter, Ware also was appointed to his position by Gov. Ogilvie on Jan. 11, 1970, when the IBI became part of the newly-formed Department of Law Enforcement.

The IBI director was an inspector in the Illinois Division of Narcotic Control for six years, later becoming superintendent of the division and directed investigations of suspected narcotic violations in almost every major city in the state.

During 1967 and 1968, Ware served with the Cook County Legal Assistance Foundation as a consultant in the area of poverty law, addressing numerous civic groups in attempts to better the living conditions of the poor.

Ware is a graduate of St. Ambrose College, Davenport,

PETER BENSINGER Keynote Speaker

Iowa, and holds the juris doctor degree from DePaul University School of Law.

Workshop sessions planned for this afternoon, feature such topics as—"Delinquency in the Inner City," with Cleveland Chandler, Lilly Freeman School, East St. Louis, as moderator.

"Delinquency in Suburban and Rural Areas," Wilbur R. L. Trime, Madison County superintendent of the educational, as moderator; "Mental Health and Public Health Look at Problems of Youth," moderated by Willard B. Fisher, St. Clair County Mental Health Association, Belleville; and "The Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division—Its Operations and Its New Horizons," moderated by Edward Schoenbaum, Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division.

Friday Workshops
Workshop sessions slated to start at 10 a.m. Friday, focus on the subjects—"Interaction Between Youth and the Law," with Robert Tepper of the Legal Aid Society, East St. Louis, serving as moderator.

"Alcoholism and Drug Abuse," moderated by James Harting, Alcoholism and Drug Information Center of St. Clair County, and "Innovative Plans for Facilities, Counseling and Training," with John Ellis, Southwest Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, as moderator.

In connection with the "Innovative Plans for Facilities, Counseling and Training" workshop, chief presenter for the Youth Service Bureau segment will be Vasil Eftimov, director of Pupils, Personnel Services in the Granite City school system.

Local resource people also involved in the conference's final workshop session include C. A. MacMillan, executive director of Coordinated Youth Services, 1225 Niedringhaus Ave., and James Reidelberger of Venice, former chief probation officer of the Third Judicial Circuit.

Several hundred conferees are expected to attend the Governor's luncheon and awards program at 12:30 p.m. Friday. Stressing the importance at the conference to area youth leaders, Randolph stated this week, "This is a people's conference. There is no registration fee, and all sessions are open to the public."

"Everyone May Speak"

"Those participating will be limited in amount of time to talk, so that everyone who wishes can have a chance to speak. What you say in three minutes could be the most important words that will appear in the final report of recommendations," the chairman said.

"Your recommendations might change lives of many boys and girls in the immediate years ahead," Randolph commented. The only cost is $7.15 for the Thursday dinner and Governor's luncheon combined, he pointed out, noting that past conferences have required persons from this area expending funds for transportation and accommodations in Chicago.

Among those attending the two-day event are individuals working in all local, state and federal agencies dealing with youth; police officers, particularly those in juvenile departments; court services people; judges, probation officers and attorneys; social workers involved with youth problems; school social workers; train officers, administrators and teachers.

Others include the personnel of Day Care Centers, foster homes and foster parents; family and youth counselors; community workers; government officials interested in youth programs; parents of youth on parole or in state institutions awaiting parole; and adults interested in what is happening to the present generation of youth.

Older youths of high school age who can contribute to the solution of the problems of youth will attend with permission of their school administrators, Randolph said.

A summary on the conference to conclude the program at 2 p.m. Friday will be presented by J. Robert Weber, administrator, Office of Field Services, Illinois Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division.

Police Chief Issues Warning on Minibikes

Many minibikes are being driven in the Granite City area in violation of state and local laws and operators may be prosecuted, Police Chief Ronald Veizer warned today.

He said a minibike is a motor-driven cycle which cannot be operated on a public highway without valid registration, and the secretary of state will not license a motor-driven cycle under 90 cubic centimeter piston displacement.

Chief Veizer also noted that operators of minibikes must have valid driver's licenses or permits, and that without one, it is unlawful to drive on streets, alleys, public parkways or school property.

Operators of minibikes can be charged with all equipment violations, including headlights, tail lights, stop lights, horn and goggles, he said, and parents of minors who permit them to operate against the laws can be held in violation.

This six-cent postage stamp may soon be little more than a collector's item as the cost of sending a first class letter goes up to 8 cents effective May 16, according to Postmaster General Winton M. Blount.

Airmail rates also will be increased from 10 cents per letter to 11 cents, Blount stated.

In return for the rate hike, Blount promises one day delivery on air parcels to principal cities within a 600-mile radius, and second day delivery of 95% of all airmail between most major United States cities.

If you were going to design a lawn mower, where would you put the grass catcher?

On the right side, so it bumps into whatever's sticking up on your right? On the left side, so it does the same there? The fact is, most grass bags are afterthoughts. They stick out to one side. They simply weren't designed to be part of the mower.

The Snapper V-21 or 18 has its grass bag between the handles. You can close-trim on both sides, and vacuum your lawn while you're mowing. And the bag holds three times as much grass. We designed it that way. In fact, all the good things about Snapper V-21 or 18 are logical. The result of sound design and planning by people who make lawn equipment and only lawn equipment. Not afterthoughts.

Examining Stations to Handle License Forms

Expansion of the program of accepting applications for motor vehicle license plates, titles and transfers at drivers license examining stations was announced this week by Secretary of State John W. Lewis.

The service, which was started at Chicago Heights early in March, is now being offered at examining stations in Danville, Decatur, Jacksonville and Peoria. "The pilot program at Chicago Heights has proved sufficiently successful to make us believe it will be equally well received in the four additional cities," Secretary Lewis said. "We hope to add other cities in the near future."

The service is offered to the general public only, Lewis said, and is not extended to dealers, remitters, currency exchanges or other agencies handling multiple applications. License plates are not issued at the examining stations, but applicants are given cash receipts for their fees, he explained. The applications are forwarded to Springfield for processing, and the plates, titles and transfer cards are mailed to the applicants.

Drivers License Division personnel regularly assigned to the examining stations have been given special training in checking the type and amount of applications, and no additional personnel are needed to provide the service, Lewis said.

Flowers Supermarketized To Promote Daily Buying

Commercial flower growers for years have sought ways to "supermarketize" the European housewives' long-standing custom of daily flower buying at the town market.

Denis Volas, president of Continental Flower Growers, is successfully supplying several St. Louis supermarkets with carnations, roses, chrysanthemums and other floral products which had not been available previously in satisfactory quantities or qualities.

Predominant contributors to the success of the Volas innovation are meticulous service to consignees and the use of Monsanto Company's Polyflex polystyrene film.

"The flowers are wrapped in the Polyflex film, prepacked with prices and placed attractively in the stores on a self-service basis," he said.

Volas, who initiated his new system in one local store last

World Service Organization, a newly established student group at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus, has begun its first service campaign with collecting books to be sent overseas. The group's purpose is to coordinate any type of student-oriented volunteer activities related to international relations. Workshops in Voice On Next 2 Weekends

Two weekend workshops in voice will be conducted at SIU-SW this month. The first is scheduled for April 17-18 and the second April 24-25. Conducting the workshops will be Sue Ann Park, director of the voice training program at the Goodman School and Theater in Chicago. Members of her profession consider Mrs. Park the foremost authority in this country on the Lessac method of voice training for the stage. Established by Arthur Lessac, former coach for the Lincoln Center in New York and now professor of theater at State University of New York, the Lessac method is based on three physical actions—structural, tonal and consonant. Mrs. Park is one of a series of guest artists being brought to the local campus this quarter by the Fine Arts Division. At SIU-SW she will be working primarily with speech and theater majors, giving lecture-demonstrations and holding conferences with students and members of the speech and theater faculty.

Fall Admission Closed At Eastern Illinois

No additional undergraduate students will be accepted for admission to Eastern Illinois University for the 1971 fall quarter. Dr. Samuel J. Taber, dean, Student Academic Services, announced today. Today's announcement, according to Taber, closes the only remaining undergraduate category—former students seeking readmission.

SIU Accommodates Handicapped Students

SIU make an effort to accommodate handicapped students as much as possible in all facets of college life," according to Mrs. Diane Dunlop of Trenton, N. J., student assistant in the Office of Handicapped Student Services of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

SIU has more than 120 wheel chair students, and a unique program which attempts to remove the physical barriers of campus life and help the students adapt their abilities to the on-going university community. The University first began admitting nonambulatory students in 1956 and the Office of Handicapped Student Services was created in 1967 as "an arm of the Dean of Students Office," Mrs. Dunlop said.

The Office of Handicapped Students provides general services such as admission, orientation, housing, academic counseling, transportation information, career planning and assistance. Information to new and prospective students and clearance for disabled applicants is available through Handicapped Student Services. Interested admissions applicants are asked to apply at least six months ahead of time and to check periodically on their applications.

own potential. They'll have to do it in a series of challenges that are both physical and psychological.

The obstacle course, laid out last year by Outdoor Laboratory staffers Henry Schafermeyer, is a series of ordeals utilizing man-made challenges as well as the formidable elements of the Shawnee Hills terrain itself. Students will start out in training sessions to learn such necessities as map and compass reading, woodsmanship, rope handling, first aid and unit organization. By the end of the session they'll have to be able to overcome the "Underway" challenges with no help at all. Students will live in tents, from which they must emerge each morning at 6:30 for a pre-breakfast mile run. From there, it'll be mostly uphill, according to Schafermeyer. Except for the solo wilderness trips, students will share their agonies in 10-man crews.

There will also be interviews with counselors, "inspirational" reading and writing, and many interludes of contemplation and introspection, deep within the roughest of 10 square miles that make up the SIU Outdoor Laboratory.

It's all aimed at building confidence and understanding of the environment by way of forcing students to discover their

No effort has been spared to describe the course as anything other than it is likely to be. The Outdoor Laboratory brochure about the Underway Program has an entry for "weather" which reads, "hot, humid days and nights."

The four sessions will run from June 27 to Sept. 1. One from Aug. 1-14 will be strictly for girls. The others will be boys only.

U. S. Army Announces New Enlistment Option

The United States Army is now accepting applications from men who wish to serve with some of its most distinguished units according to Sgt. Morris L. Cook, local Army recruiter.

"Under the terms of a new program which has just been announced," the sergeant said, "men who qualify may select the 1st Infantry Division, the 4th Infantry Division, the 1st or 2d Armored Divisions, the 82d Airborne Division, the 17th Infantry Brigade or the 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment."

The 1st Infantry Division, which won fame as the "Big Red One," has returned from service in Vietnam and is now based at its permanent home, Fort Riley, Kans. The 1st Infantry Division is the oldest Regular Army division and has a distinguished record dating back to World War I.

The 4th Infantry, or "Ivy" Division, is also based in Vietnam, and is based at Fort Carson, Colo. Fort Carson is a few miles south of Colorado Springs in the Front Range of the Rockies.

The 1st Armored Division, or "Old Ironsides" Division, is a veteran armored unit with a distinguished record of combat during World War II. The division is located at Fort Hood, Tex., near the city of Killeen. Also based at Ft. Hood is the 2d Armored Division, or "Hell on Wheels" Division. The 2d Armored also carved a brilliant record during World War II.

The last of the division-sized units under the new program is the 82d Airborne, or "All-American" Division. First organized in 1917, the 82d has pioneered the strategy and tactics of airborne operations. The 82d led the Normandy invasion of World War II and men trained by the division have been in the forefront of every conflict in which this nation has fought. It is based at Fort Bragg, N.C.

Fort Benning, Ga., one of the nation's largest Army posts, is the home of the 17th Infantry Brigade. The 17th, whose motto is "Forever Forward," supports the activities and mission of the Infantry School in addition to its combat-readiness training. It is the largest brigade in the Army.

With a history of tradition equal to that of any unit on the Army rolls, the "Brave Rifles" of the 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment can trace the beginning of their unit back to 1846. Commanded by the series of distinguished men who went on to brilliant Army careers, the 3d has been truly representative of the cavalry spirit. Its home base is Fort Lewis, Wash.

According to Sgt. Cook, young men who wish to enlist for one of these history-making units must meet the normal mental and physical standards for enlistment in the Regular Army. There are some slightly higher physical standards, however, for those volunteering for the 82d Airborne Division, which requires its members to complete airborne training before their assignment to the division.

For further information on this and other Army opportunities, see Sgt. Cook at 1206 Niedringhaus Ave.

Price Asks Release of Funds for Lock, Dam

Congressman Melvin Price of this district is co-sponsoring a resolution urging the President to release appropriated public works funds now frozen.

"In the last session of the 91st Congress," Price pointed out, "construction of public works projects throughout the country was authorized by Congress."

"Appropriations for these projects were passed by Congress and then signed by the President."

Prior to the formulation of the fiscal 1972 budget, however, the President placed in budgetary freeze these funds.

"In our district, two projects have been affected by the freeze," the congressman continued. "The planned Lock and Dam 26 project in Alton now has $351,000 in reserve and the construction of regulating works for the Mississippi between the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers is being delayed by $1,000,000 placed in reserve."

"Completion dates for both of these projects will necessarily have to be delayed."

"The taxpayer is the primary victim of this freeze," he emphasized. "Once a project has been signed into law, the expense of construction rises each year the project is delayed."

"It is my hope that the administrative will soon recognize the bad economy of this freeze and will release the funds," Price concluded.

Man In Mishap Charged
Larry Earl Roberts, 22, of 2914 Marshall Ave., was charged with leaving the scene of an accident and driving while intoxicated after his auto struck a tree at 2812 Marshall Ave. at 1:40 a.m. Tuesday.

The Secret of Selecting Siding That Protects Your Home Better--Longer!

You've heard of aluminum siding. You've heard of steel siding. You've heard of wood siding. These are fine products, but we do not believe you should purchase siding because of the base material. We say this . . . siding should be purchased primarily on the basis of the finish, not on what is underneath. This makes sense, because it is the finish, not the base material that fails. When it (the finish) cracks, curls, peels, wears thin or becomes unsightly for any other reason, repainting or resurfacing is necessary. The secret, therefore, to retaining the beauty of a home at the lowest possible maintenance cost is to select exterior siding that has a finish which gives longest possible service. Vinyl on metal (Vinylized Siding by Mastic) provides that finish.

AS FLOORING—Vinyl takes a merciless beating daily.

AS PIPING—Vinyl carries corrosive liquids and acids.

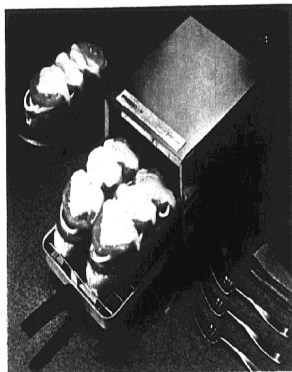

IN AUTOMOBILES—Vinyl's weatherability and durability makes it the auto makers choice for interior and exterior use.

IN CONSTRUCTION—Vinyl is used to protect the exteriors of modern skyscrapers and high rise apartments.

The difference between Vinylized siding and ordinary siding is the quality of the finish that goes "on top" of the metal base. This finish (Vinyl) comes to Mastic Corporation in the form of a thick, heavy, almost solid-like material. It is then fused to the metal base in a modern, electronically-controlled curing oven, and applied so heavily that the finish coating averages...

4 TIMES THE THICKNESS OF
BRUSHED ON PAINT

4 TIMES THE THICKNESS OF
ORDINARY FACTORY-APPLIED
FINISHES

No wonder it offers such remarkable wearability and performance!

You can see and feel the quality difference because the panels are delivered with a textured finish. Look for it... It's the hallmark of the very best.

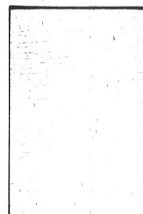

For your security, Vinylized siding comes with a transferable guarantee that you can depend on. Issued by Mastic Corporation... a company with a AAA-1 Dun & Bradstreet rating.
